THE VICTOR RECORD CATALOGUE

THE idea of a strictly alphabetical record catalogue originated with the Victor Talking Machine Company and established a new standard in publications of this kind. It is a catalogue and much more, for not only does it contain "all the music of all the world," but it serves also as a musical encyclopedia which is both authoritative and convenient for reference purposes.

How to use

It will be observed that this catalogue has no index—or rather, it is all index—every title, subject, singer, organization and composer being in its proper place, with all the records in each class set underneath the subject heading; and each with its number, size and catalogue price printed plainly after the title. In every case where a double-faced record is listed both titles are given. For example, take double-faced record No. 45157. This appears under the A's, as follows:

Americans Come! The (Wilbur-Foster) Reinald Werrenrath I Can Always Find Sunshine in Y.M.C.A. Murphy-Orpheus Qt)	45157	10	1.00

And this record will also be found under the I's, with titles reversed, thus:

I Can Always Find Sunshine in the Y.M.C.A. Murphy-Qt The Americans Come (Wilbur-Foster) Reinald Werrenrath	45157	10	1.00

Each title appears in its proper alphabetical order, with the title of the selection on the other side of the record indented and printed in italic type in order that it may keep the alphabetical column perfectly clear.

Subject Headings

In so complete a catalogue some records are listed several times under various headings, and under these subject headings it has been found necessary to list double-faced records in a different way, as follows:

Auld Scotia—Lauder Songs—Pryor's Band and Fortune Teller Selection	35224	12	1.35
Battle of Killiecrankie (2) Will Ye No Come Back Again (Bagpipes and Drums) and Scotch Medley March—Sutcliffe Troupe	17140	10	.85
Battle of Stirling (Sinclair) and Wi' a Hundred Pipers—Farquhar Murray	18265	10	.85
Blue Bells of Scotland and The Last Rose of Summer—Himmelreich	18305	10	.85
Bonnie Wee Thing (Robert Burns-Liza Lehmann) John McCormack	64427	10	1.25

The two selections in this case being set on the same line (the second title in italic type) and divided by the symbol "and."

Alphabetical plan

To show how this plan preserves the alphabetical arrangement take this example:

CHORUSES FROM OPERAS

Flying Dutchman—Spinning Cho	and Lohengrin—Bridal Cho—Victor Cho	35494	12	1.35
Huguenots—Soldiers' Chorus	and Magic Flute—O Isis—Met Opera Cho	45051	10	1.00
Lohengrin—Bridal Chorus—Victor Opera Chorus	and Flying Dutchman—Spinning Chorus—Victor Women's Chorus	35494	12	1.35
Lucia—Sextette—Chi mi frena In Italian	Victor Opera Sextette	70036	12	1.25
Magic Flute—O Isis	and Huguenots—Soldiers' Chorus—Met Opera Chorus	45051	10	1.00
Prince Igor—Coro di donne	and Coro di danza—Italian—Metropolitan Cho	45133	10	1.00
Rigoletto Quartet—Bella figlia dell' amore In Italian	Victor Opera Qt	70073	12	1.25

It will be noticed that the operatic titles are all in the left column in alphabetical order. If the opposite side is also a chorus, then the selections are reversed and repeated further down the column (see Flying Dutchman and Lohengrin airs), to give the second title its own proper position.

Suggestions invited

Because of the great labor involved in compiling so comprehensive a catalogue, some mistakes occasionally occur. The editor wishes to thank those who have called attention to errors and suggested various changes. Corrections or suggestions for further improvement of the next edition, or communications on any subject pertaining to records, will be gladly received. Just address Victor Catalogue Editor, Camden, N. J.

Red Seal Section

The Red Seal records have been printed in a special Pink section for the convenience of customers who are specially interested in Red Seal records.

Features

Thumb guides in conspicuous type, both right and left hand, to facilitate turning to any desired page; every record in alphabetical order under title of selection; every double-faced record in alphabetical order under title of each selection in its turn. Records of standard compositions under name of composer; many records under one or more subject headings for ready reference; every opera with place and date of first performance; sketches of the operas; scenes from the operas; every operatic record under title of the opera; all selections from opera in exact order they are sung or played in the opera, with acts and scenes indicated; list of selected records for new Victor customers; special Red Seal section on pink paper; sketches of prominent composers; sketches of the careers of the various artists; reference list of Victor singers and players; list of subject headings; pronunciations of composers, artists and opera titles; a page of musical terms. The last four features will be found at the end of the catalogue.

Accompaniments

The great majority of Victor Records (vocal solos, duets, quartets and instrumental solos, etc.) are made with orchestral accompaniments. The few exceptions are many of the violin solos, certain songs which especially call for pianoforte accompaniments and a list of male quartets unaccompanied.

How to get best results

It seems almost unnecessary, but we say again to Victor customers "Use only good needles," "don't play records at various speeds," and "don't use a steel needle more than once." Victor records are made with the greatest care and if properly played will last indefinitely, and so to aid new customers in keeping records in good condition we offer the following suggestions:

78 Revolutions per minute

Set the regulator so that the turntable of your Victrola revolves seventy-eight times per minute, and never change it unless for some special purpose. When using Victrola and piano together, it is occasionally necessary to change the speed slightly to get the two instruments exactly in tune; and sometimes the dancers wish a little variation to suit the steps. Test the speed occasionally by placing a slip of paper under the edge of the record, and while it is revolving, see that the paper revolves 78 times in one minute.

Starting the record

Don't try to drop the needle or Tungs-tone Stylus exactly into the first record groove. If you do, it is likely to make a hole, and you will hear a little "tick" when the needle passes over the spot. The proper way is to start the instrument and then wait two or three seconds until it is running at full speed (you can give the turntable a little "push" to facilitate this), carefully lower the sound box so that the needle or stylus rests on the smooth outside rim of the disc; then let go and it will glide gently into the first groove of the record. Please be especially careful to place a Tungs-tone Stylus GENTLY on the record to avoid bending the point.

A Selected List From Which to Chose Your First Records

To assist customers in making selections from the thousands of records listed in this catalogue, we give below a carefully selected list, which will be of particular assistance to those who are beginning to interest themselves in the great variety of musical entertainment which is made available by the Victor.

AFRICANA (Af-ree-kah'-nah) French title, L'Africaine (Laf-ree-kane')

Opera in five acts; text by Scribe; music by Meyerbeer. Produced Paris, 1865; London, 1865; first N. Y., 1865. Revived in 1906 at the Metropolitan, with Caruso.

L'Africaine tells of the adventures of Vasco di Gama, the explorer, who is betrothed to Inez, daughter of the King of Portugal. The King tries to marry his daughter to Don Pedro, telling her that the explorer has been shipwrecked, but Vasco suddenly appears with two slaves, Selika and Nelusko, whom he found off the coast of a strange land. Vasco, when the Council refuses to furnish him with a ship to explore the unknown country, denounces their parsimony and is ordered to prison. To save him, Inez consents to wed Don Pedro, who takes his wife and the slaves and sails away to find the land sought by the explorer. Don Pedro's ship is wrecked on the coast of India through the treachery of Nelusko, and most of the crew massacred. Vasco, who has followed them, becomes fascinated with Selika, who proves to be a Queen of India, but just as he is about to wed her he hears the voice of Inez and deserts the Queen. Selika, concealing her feelings, generously sends the lovers back to Spain, then kills herself with the blossoms of the poisonous mancanilla tree while Nelusko, finding her body, himself inhales the deadly perfume.

NOTE—The selections in Africana and other operas in this catalogue are printed in the order of their occurrence in the opera. Africana records are sung in Italian except as noted.

AÏDA (Ah-ee'-dah) (All records are in Italian unless otherwise noted)

Opera in four acts. Text translated from Locle by Ghislanzoni; music by Verdi. First produced in Cairo, 1871; Milan, 1872; Paris, 1876; London, 1876; N. Y., 1873.

Aïda, daughter of Amonasro, King of Ethiopia, has been captured by the Egyptians and is a slave at Memphis, where she and the young soldier, Rhadames, have fallen in love with each other. Rhadames goes to the Egyptian war, and during his absence the King's daughter, Amneris, discovers the attachment and is furious, as she herself loves Rhadames.

Rhadames returns, covered with glory and bringing many prisoners, among them

LANDE

THE RETURN OF RHADAMES—ACT II

Amonasro, Aïda's father. The King releases all the prisoners except Amonasro, and bestows his daughter on the unwilling Rhadames.

In the next scene Amonasro forces his daughter to persuade Rhadames to become a traitor. The latter's love for Aïda and his distaste for the approaching union with Amneris lead him to consent. Amneris, however, has overheard the plot, and after vainly trying to induce Rhadames to abandon Aïda, in a jealous rage she denounces him as a traitor, and he is condemned to be buried alive. When the vault is sealed he discovers Aïda, who has concealed herself there that she might die with him, and the lovers slowly suffocate.

ARNE, Dr. Thomas Augustine (1710-1773)

Born in London, designed for the law. Practiced music secretly. Became one of the most prolific of English composers. Wrote 30 operas and other works. Trained his own sister, Mrs. Colley Cibber, famous actress. Composer of "Rule, Britannia," first written for a royal masque. First introduced women's voices into oratorio. For compositions see "Lass with the Delicate Air," "Rule, Britannia," and Shakespeare—"As You Like It."

BACH, JOHANN SEBASTIAN (Bahkh)

BACH

Born Eisenach, Prussia, 1685. Family very musical and was taught violin by father. Afterward studied clavichord. Chorister at Luneberg, 1700. Organist, Armstadt, 1704; appointed court organist at Weimar, 1707; then Concertmeister. Kapellmeister at Coethen 1717 to 1723, then director of several Leipsic churches. Married twice; 20 children. Was greatest master of fugue and counterpoint, and first to introduce present method of fingering for pianoforte. Works numerous, including 300 church cantatas, many organ works, suites, concertos, etc. Larger works include Mass in B Minor, Christmas Oratorio, Passion of St. John and St. Matthew. Bach died in 1750, after having become almost blind.

BAKER, ELSIE, Contralto (See also "Duets, Vocal" and "Educational")

PHOTO APEDA

Elsie Baker comes of a Philadelphia musical family. She began at the piano as a child, then studied singing under various teachers, including Oscar Saenger. Unlike most singers, she believed the true school for the American voice was in the church, where she had wide experience. She has made lengthened tours in concert and oratorio, and had many triumphs. She now is at the head of her own company which two years ago toured the United Srates from coast to coast, and which expects to repeat the procedure during the present season. Miss Baker is also soloist at St. Paul's M. E. Church, New York City.

BALALAIKA ORCHESTRA, Russian Imperial Court (Bal-lah-layee'-kah)

The balalaika is a primitive folk instrument with a tone similar to that of a mandolin, and is much used in Russia. This instrument is a kind of guitar, with only three strings, being made in several sizes, from that of a mandolin to something near a double bass.

BARBIERE DI SIVIGLIA (Bahr-beay'-reh dee See-veel'-yah)

The plot of Barber is very simple. Count Almaviva loves Rosina, the ward of Dr. Bartolo, a crusty old bachelor, who secretly wishes to marry her himself. Almaviva persuades the village barber, Figaro, to arrange a meeting for him, and gains entrance to the house disguised as a dragoon, but is arrested by the guardian. Not discouraged, he returns, pretending to be a substitute for Rosina's music teacher, who, he says, is ill. The appearance of the real music master, Don Basilio, spoils this plan, and the Count retreats for the second time, having, however, arranged a plan for elopement. Bartolo finally arouses Rosina's jealousy by pretending that the Count loves another, and she promises to forget him and marry her guardian. When the time for the elopement arrives she meets the Count, intending to reproach him, but he convinces her of the base plot of Bartolo, and the lovers are wedded by a notary, just as Bartolo arrives with officers to arrest the Count. The opera by many is considered Rossini's masterpiece. (For complete description, with many illustrations, see the "Victrola Book of the Opera.")

BATTIS, WM. STERLING—Dramatic Reader and Character Impersonator

William Sterling Battis is justly considered the greatest American interpreter of the writings of Charles Dickens. For several years he has been a great attraction in Lyceum and Chautauqua work, his special feature being the presentation of "Life Portrayals" of Dickens' characters in complete costume, with appropriate monologues arranged from the novel in which each character appears. These impersonations are given with great faithfulness as to voice, dialect and mannerisms, exactly as the great novelist describes them. In addition to a wide experience on the stage, Mr. Battis has had exceptional advantages as a student and teacher of rhetoric in some of the best-known schools.

BAYES, NORA

Nora Bayes, with her inimitable foolery and clean fun, her admirable imitations and clever and witty songs, became in a very short time one of the greatest favorites on the American stage, and she continues to hold the attention as well as the admiration of her audiences—through sheer talent.

Miss Bayes is the life of every production with which she is conn cted, and gives a zest to every moment she is on the stage. This talented artist has sung for the Victor some of her greatest successes and the records are among the most entertaining in the catalogue. Miss Bayes also made several duets with her late vaudeville partner, Jack Norworth, an unusually clever comedian.

BEETHOVEN, LUDWIG VAN (Bay'-toh-ven) (1770-1827)

Born Bonn, Germany, 1770. Began study of music at age 4. Played at concert at 8. Began composition at 10, writing a cantata and "nine variations." Assistant to concert organist at 11, at 12 conductor of Court Opera Orchestra (without pay!). When 14 was granted a salary of 150 florins (about $80 a year!). In 1787 made first visit to Vienna, a great event for the boy. Compositions not important until 1795, but from then to his death wrote 260 works. Only opera, Fidelio, produced Vienna, 1805.

Beethoven's influence on art of music very great and can hardly be estimated. He died March 26, 1827; buried in Vienna.

BINGHAM, RALPH—Entertainer

This popular entertainer was born in Richmond, Va., in 1870, and made his first appearance in public in 1876. He has now been many consecutive years before the public, and has made ten thousand appearances on the American Continent. Says his silver-tongued publicity agent: "Six hundred towns in Uncle Sam's domain have given him, each, five to eight audiences, in repeated recognition of his unequaled artistic and natural accomplishments, skillful platform methods and his inimitable public demonstrations of wit, wisdom, humor, poetry, sentiment, tragedy, music, melody, drollery and mirth." Certainly we can't add anything to that.

BIRD SONG RECORDS—Actual Songs of Birds

Nature-lovers throughout the world rejoiced in the Victor announcement of reproductions of the actual notes of the loveliest of bird singers—the thrush, nightingale and sprosser or "field nightingale." The Victor's first nightingale record created a sensation and, encouraged by the success of this record, further experiments were made, resulting in greatly improved methods of recording bird voices. Not only were new nightingale records made, but the song of the thrush, sprosser and canary recorded. The thrush has a lovely song, and will rival the nightingale in popularity. The sprosser's song is more rhythmic than the nightingale proper, and of greater volume.

BISHOP, SIR HENRY ROWLEY (1786-1855)

Born London. Wrote many operas, including "Clari," which contained air, "Home, Sweet Home"; popular songs and other compositions, including music for public events. Knighted 1842. See "Home, Sweet Home," "Lo, Here the Gentle Lark," "My Pretty Jane," "What Shall He Have Who Killed the Deer."

BIZET, GEORGES (1838-1875) (Bee-zay') Compositions by

Born Paris, 1838. Entered Conservatoire, 1848. Awarded Prix de Rome, 1847. First opera Don Procopio, produced in Rome. Others Vasco, 1863; Jolie Fille de Perth, 1867; Djamileh, 1872. Married daughter of Halévy, the composer. His master work is Carmen, produced three months before his death, and now probably most popular of all operas (except Faust). Other works comprise Pearl Fishers, L'Arlesienne, many songs, overtures and orchestral suites. Died Bougival, near Paris, 1875.

BOHÊME, LA (Boh-ehm') (The Bohemians) (In Italian unless noted)

Text by Giacosa and Illica; music by Puccini. First produced at Turin, 1896. In English, as "The Bohemians," in London, 1897. In Italian at Covent Garden, 1899. First American production, November 28, 1899.

Puccini's Bohême is an adaptation of part of Mürger's La Vie Bohême, which depicts life in the Quartier Latin, or the Students' Quarter, in 1830. The principal characters in Puccini's opera are the inseparable quartet described by Mürger, who with equal cheerfulness defy the pangs of hunger and the landlord of their little garret. Rudolph, a poet; Marcel, a painter; Colline, a philosopher; and Schaunard, a musician, are our friends who occupy an attic in the Quartier Latin, where they live and work together. Improvident, reckless and careless, these happy-go-lucky Bohemians find a joy in merely living, being full of faith in themselves.

Rudolph makes the acquaintance of Mimi, a little flower-maker; Marcel meets the gay Musetta, who plays fast and loose with him. Alternate quarrels and reconciliations fill the lives of these lovers, but the final separation ends with the sad death of Mimi, at the close of the opera. In the scenes of careless gaiety is interwoven a touch of pathos; and the music is in turn lively and tender, with a haunting sweetness that is most fascinating.

BOHÊME, LA (Venice, 1897) (Leoncavallo)

Leoncavallo's setting of Mürger's story was written several years after the production of Puccini's opera, and differs slightly from the latter version. The first act occurs in the Café Momus, the second in Musetta's house, the third in Marcel's garret, and the fourth in the studio of Rudolph. Unlike the Puccini work, the tenor part is given to Marcel.

BOHEMIAN GIRL (The records are sung in English)

This popular ballad opera was one of fifteen similar works by Michael Wm. Balfe (1808) and was produced at Drury Lane, London, in 1843.

The story tells of the kidnapping of Arline, daughter of the Count Arnheim, by Devilshoof, a gypsy chief. Thaddeus, a young noble banished from his country, joins the gypsy band and falls in love with Arline. While the gypsies are attending a fair at Presburg, Arline, now a beautiful maiden of 17, incurring the displeasure of the Gypsy Queen, is accused of stealing and is taken before Count Arnheim, who recognizes his daughter by a scar on her arm. She is restored to her rank, but continues to meet Thaddeus secretly, until the lovers are denounced to the Count by the jealous Queen. The Count is at first indignant, but the pleading of his daughter, and the knowledge that Thaddeus is of noble birth, reconciles him to the union of the lovers.

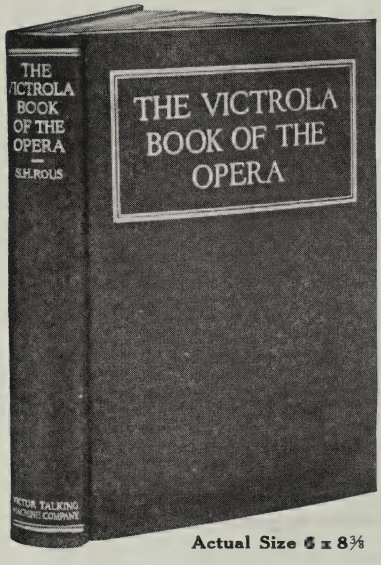
BOOK OF THE OPERA—The fifth revised edition



Actual Size 6 x 8⅜

We enjoy Grand Opera more when we know more about it, and in all the literature of music we know of no other publication which gives so definite an insight into the subject as does the "Victrola Book of the Opera."

Not only is the story of the plot given, but aria, duet, trio, or whatever it may be, is described in detail in its proper place, so that with this book and the necessary Victor records one may actually get a better understanding of the subject at home than by attending actual performances.

The "Victrola Book of the Opera" is a volume of over four hundred pages. It contains the story and the dramatic action of practically every opera which has survived the test of time, and is handsomely bound in purple and gold.

Copies may be obtained from any Victor dealer, or in case your dealer is out of stock, from the Victor Talking Machine Company, Camden, New Jersey, at one dollar a copy. In the latter case fifteen cents additional should be sent to defray transportation charges.

A copy of this volume should be in every school, music club, conservatory of music and in the private library of all those who possess an active interest in good music; and it is, of course, extremely valuable to the music teacher.

BRAHMS, JOHANNES (Brahmz) (1833–1897)

BRAHMS

Born Hamburg, 1833. Father played orchestra in theatre and taught boy. At 14 made first appearance as pianist. At 20 made concert tour, was heard by Joachim, who pronounced him a genius. Some compositions of this period not successful, and Brahms spent some years in further study. In 1862 went Vienna as conductor, bringing out choral works by Bach and Handel with great success. His first symphony, upon which he had worked for ten years, off and on, presented 1876, with great success. Greatest work, his Requiem, a sacred cantata, performed Bremen, 1868; London, 1873; United States, 1884. Wrote several symphonies, much exquisite chamber music. Songs very beautiful, ranking with those of Schubert, Schumann and Franz, and he was one of the foremost composers of the world. Brahms died Vienna, 1897.

BROWN BROS. SAXOPHONE SEXTETTE

It will be remembered that the Brown Brothers were one of the features of that successful production, "Chin Chin," and they also created something of a sensation in Stone's "Jack O' Lantern." These accomplished players have chosen lively numbers which show the skill of the organization and exhibit the noble tone quality of the instruments.

BURBECK, FRANK, American Actor

A sterling actor quite well known to theatre-goers, both in America and England. For nearly a quarter of a century his name has been prominent in the leading dramatic productions—Robson and Crane, Dion Boucicault, Maude Adams' productions of Twelfth Night and Joan of Arc, etc.; and he has for many years been a valued member of the Frohman staff.

Mr. Burr is one of the most valued members of the Victor staff of singers, his mellow tenor voice and distinct enunciation making his records most pleasing ones. This singer has contributed to the Victor list a fine collection of popular ballads and old Scotch songs, besides appearing in several duet combinations and with the Peerless Quartet. Mr. Burr's likeness may be found under the Peerless Quartet heading.

CARMEN (Sung in French unless otherwise noted)

CARMEN'S DEFIANCE—ACT IV

CARMEN—Continued

Ca

Text by Meilhac and Halévy, founded on Mérimée's novel. Music by Bizet. First production, Paris, 1875; London, 1878; New York, 1879, with Minnie Hauk. Some notable revivals, 1893, Calvé's first appearance; 1905, with Caruso; and Hammerstein's revival, 1906, with Bressler-Gianoli and Dalmores.

Don Jose, a young brigadier, betrothed to Micaela, a peasant girl in his native village, is quartered at Seville near a factory where Carmen, a reckless and beautiful cigarette girl, stabs a fellow-employee, and is arrested by Jose. She manages to fascinate him, and makes her escape. Jose is imprisoned for neglect of duty, but when released follows the gypsy to Pastia's Inn, where he finds Escamillo, a Toreador, and Zuniga, his captain, both paying court to Carmen. Stung with jealousy he deserts, and follows the band of smugglers Carmen has joined.

The next act shows the smugglers' camp, and Carmen, already tired of her soldier, welcomes the Toreador, who has followed her. Jose is about to kill her when Micaela arrives with a summons from his dying mother. He goes, but threatens vengeance. In the last act the tragedy occurs, when Jose, half crazed with jealousy, kills Carmen outside the bull ring, where she is awaiting the triumphant Escamillo. (See "Book of the Opera.")

CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA (Kah-vahl-lay-ree'-ah Roos-tih-kah'-nah)

(Rustic Chivalry) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted

Opera in one act; libretto adapted from "Verga" by Menasci; music by Mascagni. First production, Rome, 1890; London, 1891; first U. S. production at Phila., 1891. Mascagni, the composer, was the son of a baker in Leghorn, and it was his father's wish that the son should be his successor. This, however, did not appeal to the young man, who was already studying music secretly. None of his compositions met with any great measure of success until he wrote the above opera, which he did at fever heat in eight days.

The story of "Rustic Chivalry" is one of Sicilian love and hate, passion and revenge. Turiddu, a young peasant, son of old Lucia, goes to war, and during his absence from the village his sweetheart, Lola, forgets him and weds the young carter, Alfio. Turiddu returns and consoles himself with the love of Santuzza, the village beauty, but soon tiring of her, his old passion for Lola revives. Santuzza, scorned by Turiddu, reveals the affair to the wronged husband. On Easter morning, as the villagers are leaving church, Alfio challenges the destroyer of his domestic happiness. Repenting his misdeeds, Turiddu takes an affectionate leave of his mother, and goes forth to the duel. Justice is accomplished in his death at the hands of Alfio, and the betrayed Santuzza is left disconsolate.

CAWTHORN, JOSEPH

Mr. Cawthorn, who needs no introduction to Victor audiences, as he is one of the best known and liked comedians on the American stage, has made a number of records for the Victor. His interpolated song, "You Can't Play Every Instrument in the Band," in "The Sunshine Girl," when sung by Cawthorn, was one of the greatest features in that charming musical comedy.

"Audiences roar over Joseph Cawthorn's participation in Sybil," said a New York paper, and it is not alone New York audiences that "roar." Through the Victor, Mr. Cawthorn's humor may be enjoyed by all the world.

CELESTA SOLOS—By the late Felix Arndt

The celesta consists of a series of small steel bars or plates, set in vibration by hammers, which, in turn, are set in motion by a simplified pianoforte-action controlled from an ordinary piano keyboard. The peculiar beauty of the tone is partly due to the fact that under each vibrating steel bar is an accurately tuned resonator of wood. Attached to the instrument is a pedal which materially enhances its sustaining power.

This instrument was invented in 1886 by M. Auguste Mustel, of Paris, and has been largely used by modern French composers in works where a special quality of tone is required. The tone is of exquisite purity and clearness, as is amply demonstrated in the beautiful records which Mr. Arndt has made.

(Hungarian, Cembalom; French, Tympanon; Italian, Cembalo; German, Hackbrett; English, Dulcimer—probably derived from dulce melos.)

Here is the rather curious instrument which gives such a fascinating quality to Hungarian Orchestras. It has a trapezodial sounding board with metal strings (each note having three or five) and is played with two leather-faced hammers. The complete range is usually four octaves.

The Cembalom is of very ancient, probably Oriental, origin and is closely related to the clavi-cembalo (clavecin or harpsichord), from which the modern pianoforte is derived.

CHEATHAM, KITTY

Miss Cheatham, who introduced herself to the great Victor audience by means of her quite unique presentation of the Nursery Rhymes and her renditions of the negro folk songs, is probably the greatest authority in the world on the literature of childhood in song and story, and, though "Mother Goose" has lived with us for over two centuries, we feel that we have only just made her acquaintance when she is introduced to us by this artist, who has sung these delightful rhymes to children, irrespective of age, in almost every country of the world.

Miss Cheatham is also well equipped, by birth and personal observation, to sing with authority the genuine old negro songs; her work along these lines is of rare ethnological and cultural value.

CHERUBINI, MARIA LUIGI CARLO ZENOBIO SALVATORE Born in Florence September 14, 1760. Began to learn music at six and composition at nine. Beethoven considered him greatest writer of his time for stage composition. His sense of form said to be almost as perfect as Mozart's but with less aptitude for melodic expression. Composed many Operas, Cantatas, Masses and a number of instrumental pieces. Died Paris May 15, 1842. See "Guide Thou My Steps" and "Requiem Mass"

CHOPIN, FRÉDÉRIC (Show-pahn)

CHOPIN

Born near Warsaw, Poland, 1809. Studied under Zywny and Elsner, and pronounced a genius at 8. Entered Warsaw Conservatory at 12. Published first composition at 14, the Rondo in C Minor. Other celebrated works written before 19. At 20, concert tour of German cities with success. Too frail physically for army, became an exile, and lived Paris as teacher and pianist. Associated with Bellini, Cherubini, Meyerbeer. Visited England in 1837 and began acquaintance with George Sand (Mme. Dudevant). They returned to France 1839, separated 1847. Alternate happiness and misery of this association aggravated his tubercular condition, and he died 1849. Buried Père-la-Chaise, Paris, after impressive funeral attended by entire musical colony.

Works consist mainly of smaller pieces for piano, and his nocturnes, mazurkas, etudes, have never been equaled in their particular class. His personality remarkable—cared nothing for applause, and fascinated all who met him. Life-long illness and sympathy for trials of his native Poland found expression in music of exquisite beauty.

The Victor takes pride in giving to the world many beautiful and perfect reproductions of the playing of the greatest interpreters of Chopin, including Paderewski and de Pachmann.

CLARK, HELEN, Soprano
Helen Clark was born of a musical family in Rochester, New York. She began singing in church choirs at an astonishingly early age, and later went to study with Mme. Jaeger of the Metropolitan Opera, and was frequently cast for small parts in the Metropolitan productions. Her charming records have made her many friends in the Victor fraternity.

COLLINS, ARTHUR, Comedian

Mr. Collins is one of the most successful singers of "coon songs" now before the public. His success in this particular type of song is quite unique and is due in a large measure to the sympathetic, human way in which his own delightful personality reveals itself through his records. In addition he has a splendid voice and a wonderful faculty for making the words sound clear and understandable, which is no easy task in dialect songs. Mr. Collins is quite able to please his hearers in this respect, and he is always entertaining both in solos and in the clever duets made with Mr. Harlan. The charm of this special kind of art seems to have a never-failing appeal for the American public, and we are fortunate to have a past master of the art to represent us.

CONWAY'S BAND—See "Band Records" and "Dance Records"

Conway's Band is unquestionably one of the finest military bands in the world, and there are few in America that even compare with it. Patrick Conway was an instructor in band music at Cornell University before he became director of the Ithaca Band, Ithaca, N. Y., 1895, which has since developed into "Conway's Band," known from coast to coast of America. The high standard obtained by this band is primarily due to the painstaking and enterprising leadership of the conductor, but it is also due to the unusually high standard of musicianship among the members.

DALHART, VERNON, Tenor

DALHART

One of the best light opera tenors in America is Vernon Dalhart, an American, who has made a career for himself in the characteristic American way. He was born in Jefferson, Texas, one of the oldest towns in the "Lone Star State," and one of his earliest experiences was that of a "cow-puncher." Since 1912 he has been on the stage, part of the time with the Century Theatre Company in New York. There is no burlesquing in Mr. Dalhart's singing of negro songs. To quote his own words, he simply imagines he's "back home" again and sings as the spirit and his home experiences dictate.

DUNBAR, PAUL, Poems by

Du

Paul Lawrence Dunbar, negro poet and author, was born in Dunbar, Ohio, June 27, 1872, and was educated in the public schools of Dayton. Dean Howells spoke of him as "the first black man to free the life of the negro æsthetically and to express it lyrically." For compositions by this celebrated author see "Banjo Song," "When Malindy Sings" and "Who Knows?"

DUNLAP, MARGUERITE, Contralto

DUNLAP

This singer's rich contralto and excellent method have made her one of the most useful of the talented company which the Victor has assembled, and in both solos and many concerted numbers her work has been admirable.

The series of little darky songs which Miss Dunlap has sung are doubly attractive because of the fascinating Southern accent of this young South Carolina girl, who, coming to New York alone and unaided, has made so successful a career with the assistance of her teacher, Mme. Florence Manchester.

DVOŘÁK, ANTONIN (Dvor'-zhak) (Mühlhausen, Bohemia, 1841; d. Prague, 1904.) Son of an innkeeper. Played violin and composed by instinct until he went to Prague at 16. Finally established as composer through aid of Brahms and Smetana. In New York 1892-95.

EDUCATIONAL RECORDS

For the convenience of many not familiar with school grades and requirements, we will hereafter list alphabetically in the Record Catalog all educational records, classified only as to Vocal, Instrumental, Readings and Stories, and records for Physical Education. Following this section will appear a condensed list of records from the General Catalog, for the teaching of music appreciation and history, voices, instruments, form, etc., classified as to their educational uses. These groupings will be found suggestive and comprehensive but not exhaustive, as in some fields many other records are also useful.

These records have been made to help in the uplift of the ideals and tastes of children everywhere, as well as furnishing the finest sort of entertainment and enjoyment for the little folks, the children and the young people. These songs, stories, readings, games, dances, and marches, etc., and others to follow, are just as suitable for the home circle as for the schoolroom. Some of the short songs are grouped several on one record with small spaces between, enabling the teacher to present any one she may choose for teaching without the unpleasantness of guessing where it begins and getting a part of another song. The songs for the little children must be very short, very simple and, for the comprehension of the little child in the home as well as school, must be presented in separate, complete little tone pictures and not run together in a babel of thoughts and melodies in different keys, rhythms, etc., so confusing the child. Records of rote-songs are made with spaces, so that each song may be played separately, or the entire record may be played continuously without lifting the needle. These individual songs may be played over and over as many times as required.

This list contains special numbers for the Home, general School use, Kindergarten, Primary, Intermediate and Grammar Grades, the High School and College, and the classified condensed list gives a generous selection of numbers from the Record Catalog for use in all grades. These numbers and others selected for school work will be found in the booklets listed on the next page.

GAMES—LAFAYETTE, IND.

A New Graded List For Home and School: A catalog of 272 pages, featuring nearly one thousand records, with descriptive notes.

The Victrola in Americanization: A comprehensive booklet on the service of music in winning the foreign born to true American principles and ideals. Forty pages (illustrated).

The Victrola in Physical Education, Recreation and Play: A complete list of folk dance records, calisthenics, drills, marches, etc.

The Victrola in Rural Schools: A booklet which gives suggestive lists of records, together with comprehensive notes describing records, artists and composers, and directions for teaching of great value to the rural school teacher.

Music Appreciation for Little Children in the Home, Kindergarten and Primary School: Without question the most complete book yet published for the proper beginnings of the study of real music. A guide for mothers and teachers in using beautiful music in early childhood, where it rightfully belongs.

Pan and His Pipes, and Other Tales For Children: Ten stories of Music in Myth and History. A suggestive list of Victor Records illustrates each story.

Victrola Book of The Opera: Over Eight Hundred Opera selections (hundreds of which are used in Educational work), giving complete story of 100 Grand Operas.

What We Hear in Music: A complete course in Music History and Appreciation for High Schools, Clubs and Colleges.

SPECIAL RECORDS FOR SCHOOL AND HOME—VOCAL

For gradation for school work see "Graded List for Home and School."

Where there are two or more selections on one record, these titles will be listed in alphabetical order and referred to the first selection on the record.

WHAT WE HEAR IN MUSIC (New Revised Edition)

A course of study for high schools, normal schools, colleges, universities and home study, by Anne Shaw Faulkner—illustrated at every point by Victor Records, consisting of 120 lessons subdivided into four parts of 30 lessons each, as follows:

1. The Principles of Music.
2. The History of Music.
3. The Orchestra: The Development of Instrumental Music.
4. The Opera and Oratorio.

This work gives a complete systematized plan of study with the real music, a thing never before possible in the history of music education. To the average pupil, music history has ever been a dull, dead mass of meaningless names and dates, but it becomes most fascinating when you have the music whose history you wish to know.

The illustrations used comprise over 375 of the choicest selections in the catalogue, classified, and each one analyzed and its story told.

Copies may be obtained from any Victor dealer, or, in case your dealer is out of stock, from the Victor Talking Machine Company, Camden, New Jersey, at one dollar a copy. In the latter case fifteen cents additional should be sent to defray transportation charges.

STORIES AND READINGS

Story-telling has long been a vital part of the Kindergarten and Library, and now has taken on new life as an indispensable adjunct of the playground activities. We therefore present a series of the treasures of childhood, told in a childlike way. The Victor Company is very fortunate in having secured Miss Sara Cone Bryant, America's leading authority on the art of story-telling. Miss Bryant has told a number of her own stories in a natural and charming manner; her records will be models for teachers and mothers.

Miss Sally Hamlin, a talented Brooklyn child, has told some old tales delightfully and recited a number of Field and Riley poems in excellent style. Miss Georgene Faulkner, the "Story Lady," has a wide acquaintance through her Chautauqua appearances, and from her delightful "corner" in the "Chicago Tribune" and the "Ladies' Home Journal."

FARRELL, MARGUERITE, Soprano

Miss Farrell's career shows what pluck and "sand" will do for a girl who is ambitious. Deciding to go upon the stage, she began at the bottom—by having her feet trained first, at Ned Wayburn's dancing school, where she obtained her first part with "Rogers Brothers, in Ireland." Then she went into vaudeville. Realizing she needed voice culture she studied six months, offered her services to Oscar Hammerstein, and was taken! Twenty-eight operas in one season, however, were too much, and she tried comic opera. "Miss Princess," "American Maid" and Lillian Russell's productions brought reputation and the Big Time.

FAUST (Fowst) by Gounod (Sung in French unless otherwise indicated)

Opera in five acts; libretto by Barbier and Carré, founded upon Goethe's tragedy; music by Gounod. First produced in Paris, 1859; London, 1863; New York, 1863.

Faust, a German philosopher, after a life of meditation, becomes disgusted with the smallness of human knowledge and his own inability to unravel the mysteries of Nature. He summons to his aid the Spirit of Evil, who appears to him under the form of Mephistopheles. Through the supernatural power of the latter, Faust is restored to youth and endowed with personal beauty and luxurious garb. Mephistopheles, in a vision, reveals to him the village maid Margaret, with whom the student falls in love. Margaret, noted for her loveliness, has been left by her soldier brother, Valentine, under the care of Dame Martha, a worthy but not very vigilant personage. The maiden at first rejects the stranger's advances, but Faust, aided by the influence of Mephistopheles, urges his suit, and Margaret's resistance is at length overcome. Valentine, on returning from the wars, learns what has occurred; he challenges his sister's betrayer, but, through the intervention of Mephistopheles, he is killed in the duel. Margaret, horror-stricken at the calamity of which she is the cause, gives way to despair. Her reason becomes affected, and in a frenzy she kills her infant. She is thrown into prison, and Faust, aided by Mephistopheles, obtains access to the cell in which she is confined. They both eagerly urge her to fly, but Margaret, in whom holier feelings have obtained the ascendant, spurns their proffered aid, and expires. Mephistopheles is triumphant at the apparent success of his schemes to destroy a human soul, but a chorus of heavenly voices is heard proclaiming that there is pardon for the repentant sinner, and the Evil One, foiled and overcome, crouches in terror as the spirit of Margaret is borne to heaven by ministering angels.

KNEELING—COURTESY OF S. MULLER

MARGUERITE'S SURRENDER

VICTROLA BOOK OF THE OPERA

FISK UNIVERSITY JUBILEE QUARTET

The Jubilee Songs collected and introduced to the world by Fisk University, and which might be called Negro Folk Songs, are quaint and interesting numbers. Some touch the heart with their pathos; and some although intensely religious, sometimes excite to laughter by their quaint conceptions of Biblical facts. The original company of Jubilee Singers traveled seven years in the U. S. and Europe. After the disbanding of this company, the work was kept up by a quartet which has been kept in the field for a part of each season.

The Victor has secured the record services of the genuine Fisk Quartet, and now presents a number of their unique songs. These being correct and authentic, renditions given by the Quartet are doubly interesting.

FOSTER, STEPHEN COLLINS

Born 1826, near Pittsburgh. Began writing when a student in Athens, Pa., Academy, and published first song, Open Thy Lattice, in 1842. Moved to New York in 1860, where he wrote many of his immortal songs. Composed 175 songs; best known ones those listed on next page. His songs, called folk songs of America, are known in every land, and sung in many languages. Were probably not derived from negro tunes, as has been stated, but negro dialect was doubtless used because of the vogue of negro minstrels in the '40s and '50s. Was a Bohemian in tastes and quite talented; painted some, loved good music, spoke three languages. Died in New York, 1864.

FRENCH LESSONS

Originated primarily for the use of our soldiers in France. These records will be of considerable service to the tourist also. The "course" is divided into six different sections, one each side of three Victor records. On the first record (No. 18419) are the terms needed in getting around either in town or country; the other side deals with food and lodging. The second record (No. 18420) goes into purchases and numbers on one side and campaigning on the other. The third (No. 18421) gives the simplest and easiest phrases needed in "getting acquainted," and the opposite side of the record contains a specially selected list of useful words.

GARDNER, SAMUEL, Violinist

This young artist was born in Yeliz (Elizabethgrad), Russia, but was brought to America by his parents while he was still an infant. The family settled in New England, and all through even his early boyhood the violin appeared to be the only thing in which he was keenly interested. A "toy" violin was bought for him one Christmas, and at the age of six years he began work on a real instrument. He studied first with Winternitz and Lœffler in Boston, and lastly with Franz Kneisel in New York, finally making his début in a New York recital in 1913. He also appeared later with the New York Symphony, playing the Tschaikowsky Concerto. He has also toured with the Kneisel Quartette, at which time he occupied the second violinist's chair. Later he became a member of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and he is also known as a composer of songs and violin compositions.

GLENN, WILFRED, Bass

Mr. Glenn is a native of California, and was born on one of the great ranches in the San Joaquin Valley. He began his studies in San Francisco, but when the phenomenal quality of his voice was realized he was induced by his friends to go to New York for further study. He made rapid progress under a number of noted teachers and now has a remarkable range of some two and a half octaves, from C below the bass clef to F sharp.

GOLDEN, BILLY, Comedian

No negro specialty records have ever been so popular as those by Billy Golden. No one could ever approach him in this kind of work—in fact, the hearer forgets all about Golden and hears only a jolly old darky with an infectious laugh. Four of Golden's most famous specialties, including the favorite "Turkey in de Straw," are listed here, and thirty-one clever and entertaining specialties made in connection with three well-known comedians.

GÖTTERDÄMMERUNG (Goet'-ter-daem'-mer-oongk) The Dusk of the Gods (1876) (Wagner)

Go

Music drama in three acts and a prelude. Words and music by Richard Wagner. Wagner began the composition of the music at Lucerne in 1870, and it was completed November 21, 1874. First produced Bayreuth, August 17, 1876, with Materna and Unger. First American production at New York, January 25, 1888, with Lehmann, Seidl-Krauss, Traubman, Niemann and Fischer. Many notable American productions have been made at the Metropolitan, the latest being February, 1914, with Kurt, Ober and Berger.

The Dusk of the Gods is the last part of the tetralogy. In the prelude we once more see Brünnhilde on the rock, where she had lain during her magic sleep, and where Siegfried had found her and taken her as his bride. The hero, after a brief period of domestic happiness in a cave near by, decides to leave his bride for awhile and go in search of adventures, giving her the Nibelung's Ring as a pledge of faith. This ring he had obtained when he slew the dragon Fafner, and as the opera progresses he is doomed to suffer the consequences of the fatal curse, invoked on every possessor of the Ring by Alberich, from whom it was taken by Wotan. (For complete illustrated description see "Victrola Book of the Opera")

GOUNOD, CHARLES FRANCOIS (1818-1893) (Goo-no)

GOUNOD

Born in Paris. Father, artist, died when Gounod was five. Taught by mother. Won Conservatory Prix de Rome, 1837. Became organist San Luigi Church; contemplated priesthood. In 1850, when Mass became successful in England, asked to write a work for Paris Academie. Opera Sapho, 1851, a failure. Work unimportant until 1859, when masterpiece, Faust, appeared, most famous of all operas—given 1500 times in Paris alone. Entire work recorded by Victor, with greatest casts.

The hopes of Spain for a great national composer were built largely upon Granados, who, with his wife, was drowned upon an ocean journey in 1916, shortly after his opera, Goyescas, was given in New York. He wrote many brilliant works for the piano. See "Goyescas" and "Spanish Dance."

GREGORIAN CHANTS

Reforms in the music of the Catholic Church, under Pope Pius X, led to the substitution of the ancient Gregorian plain-song for many modern compositions. At the instance of Baron Kanzler, the Gregorian Congress had these records made. They were distributed throughout the Catholic world, the Victor doing what the teachers Romanus and Peter did on a smaller scale in the eighth century.

NOTE—The average record customer may prefer the concerted numbers listed under "Sistine Choir," which are remarkable reproductions of a famous body of singers in some noble religious compositions.

RECORDS OF THE GREGORIAN HIGH MASS

Recorded in St. Peter's Church on the Centenary of St. Gregorius Magnus. These records were executed under the direction of Mgr. Rella, Leader of the Gregorian Chant in the Sistine Chapel.

GRIEG, EDVARD HAGERUP (1843–1907) (Greeg)

GRIEG

Born Bergen, Norway, 1843. At 6 began musical education under his mother. At the age of 15 was sent to Leipsic Conservatory. Returned to Norway 1863, and began writing the original and spontaneous music which was to make him famous. Grieg really founded a new school of Scandinavian music. His short piano pieces are charming works of their class and his numerous songs full of poetic feeling. The Peer Gynt Suite, written for Ibsen's dramatic poem, "Peer Gynt," is perhaps the best known of all his compositions. Grieg died September 4, 1907.

HANDEL, GEORG FRIEDRICH (1685-1759)

Born Halle, 1685. Father a barber, afterwards valet to Prince Saxe. Intended for law, studied harpsichord secretly. Visited Court at 7. Heard playing organ by Prince, who offered to educate him. Went to Berlin in 1698, precocity astonishing all. Entered Halle University, organist at $50 a year. Wrote two operas, 1705, at Hamburg. Visited Italy, then England, where he settled, 1718. Wrote first English opera, Rinaldo. Director Royal English Academy Music, 1720, producing many operas. British subject, 1726. Paralysis, 1737, induced by opera worries. Turned to oratorio, 1737. Messiah, greatest of oratorios, 1742. Almost blind, 1752, worked till death, 1759. Buried in Westminster Abbey. Wrote 40 operas; none now performed.

HARLAN, BYRON G., Tenor

This popular tenor and comedian is one of the most versatile of the company of entertainers which the Victor has gathered together, and really seems at home in almost any kind of work he essays. Mr. Harlan not only sings popular ballads in a remarkably pleasant tenor voice, but is also one of the cleverest and most amusing of comedians, whether his impersonation be that of a typical Yankee, a darky wench or an end man in a minstrel show.

For the inimitable duets which this tenor sings with Mr. Collins and other singers see "Collins and Harlan," "Porter" and "Duets, Vocal."

HARRISON, CHARLES, Tenor—See also "Duets, Vocal"

Mr. Harrison is one of the most gifted and popular singers in the Victor's list of tenors. He has a beautiful voice and his enunciation is remarkably distinct. This artist, who was a pupil of Leo Kofler, is now soloist at a prominent Fifth Avenue church in New York and is much in demand for concerts and oratorio performances.

HAWAIIAN RECORDS

The Hawaiians are passionately fond of music, and their poetry (called mele) is highly figurative, abounding in lists of names and in allusions to their mythology, to places, ocean and flowers.

The Victor offers a fine list of favorite Hawaiian numbers, rendered by the now famous Hawaiian Quintette, who made such a success in the "Bird of Paradise" Company; the gifted Toots Paka Troupe, the Irene West Royal Hawaiians and three pairs of duetists, Louise and Ferera; Wright and Dietrich, and Lua and Kaili.

HAYDEN QUARTET (Hay'-den) (Bieling, Macdonough, Dudley, Hooley)

This popular singing organization, well known to buyers of Victor records, was the first male quartet to make satisfactory talking machine records—their success being so great here that they were finally obliged to visit England, where they made a large number of records for the European companies.

HAYDEN QUARTET

Ha

Many songs and ballads have been made popular throughout the country through the Victor records made by the Hayden singers, while their plantation songs and sacred numbers have set a new standard in the recording of male voices.

HAYDN, FRANZ JOSEF (High'-dn) Compositions by

Born Rohrau, Austria, 1732. At five years of age was sent to school at Hainburg, where for two years he was taught rudiments of music, playing on the violin. 1740 taken to Vienna by Reutter as chorister at St. Stephen's, where he learned singing, violin, clavier and composed a great deal. Later supplanted as singer by brother Michael. Became first capellmeister to Prince Esterhazy. Composed thirty symphonies, forty quartets and became known and admired all over Europe. 1791 visited London and received degree from Oxford. 1792 returned to Vienna, where he gave lessons to Beethoven. Died Vienna, 1809.

HÉRODIADE (Ay-rohd-yadd')

Opera in five acts. Words by Milliet and Grémont, based on Flaubert's novelette, Herodias. Music by Jules Massenet. First produced in Brussels, 1881; Paris, 1884; revived in 1903 with Calvé and Renaud; London, 1904, under title Salome; New Orleans, 1892. Produced by Oscar Hammerstein at Manhattan Opera House, N. Y., 1909, with Cavalieri, Gerville-Réache, Duchêne, Dalmores and Renaud. Revived February, 1914, by Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Co.

The opera contains much of the best music Massenet has written, and the plot, while based on the Scriptural story, does not follow the Bible or tradition very closely, differing quite largely from Salome. (See "Victrola Book of the Opera")

HIMMELREICH, FERDINAND, Pianist

Mr. Himmelreich is a well-known pianist, and a most unusual player in many respects, one of his accomplishments being his great skill in improvisation. His technique is quite brilliant, difficult double-finger passages in thirds and sixths being played with ease. Mr. Himmelreich's brilliant and clean-cut transcriptions of favorite light classics have greatly pleased Victor customers.

HINKLE, FLORENCE, Soprano

A voice of pure lyric soprano which she uses with much skill and musicianly insight was bestowed upon Florence Hinkle by nature, and with it she combines temperament, intelligence and personality. Her upper tones are produced apparently without effort, for the quality of tone is unimpaired, and there is no lack of control nor shading.

Miss Hinkle has appeared with many eminent organizations throughout the United States. In concert and oratorio she has won the hearts of audiences the country over. It is with great pleasure that we offer the following list of records by this exceptional artist.

HITCHCOCK, RAYMOND, Comedian

HITCHCOCK

It is with much pleasure that the Victor offers several records by this famous singing comedian, who has won so many admirers on the American stage. Born in Auburn, N. Y., and educated in his native city, Mr. Hitchcock has made his name synonymous with all that is best and breeziest in musical comedy. There is probably no such thing as a career of uninterrupted success, but Mr. Hitchcock's career is apparently the exception. Since 1904, when he appeared on Broadway in Henry W. Savage's "The Yankee Consul," Raymond Hitchcock's most pretentious successes have been "The Student King," "The Yankee Tourist," "The Man Who Owns Broadway," "The Red Widow" and "Betty."

HOPPER, DE WOLF, Comedian

Mr. Hopper's record of his famous and immortal baseball classic is a perfect reproduction of the comedian's eccentric delivery. Shut your eyes and you can imagine the whole scene—5,000 of Mudville's fans yelling for their favorite—the mighty Casey standing proudly at the bat—the pitcher gripping the ball—then a moment of hushed expectancy—and then . . . and then the tragedy begins!

Let us draw the veil—suffice to say that you can actually feel the breeze on your face when the great Casey fans the air as he strikes out!

Opera in five acts; text by Scribe and Deschamps; music by Meyerbeer. Produced Paris, 1836; Florence, 1841, under title of Gli Anglicani; London in 1842, and in Italian, 1848. First American performance in New Orleans, 1848.

This opera is considered the composer's masterpiece, and is indeed a wonderfully imposing work, with its splendid scenes, beautiful arias and concerted numbers, and its thrilling dramatic situations.

The story relates to one of the most dramatic periods in French history, and tells of the massacre of Huguenots in 1572, and of the efforts of Margaret of Valois, the betrothed to Henry IV, to reconcile the disputes between the Protestants and Catholics.

HUGUET, GIUSEPPINA, Soprano (Oo-geh')

Mme. Huguet is one of the most versatile of sopranos, her repertoire being a very large one, consisting of rôles in more than one hundred grand operas, besides many Zarzuelas (Spanish one-act operas) and operettas in which she has appeared with great success in her native Spain and in Italy. It was while singing in a Spanish operetta in Madrid that she was heard by a famous critic, who advised her to go to Italy for the study of serious operas. After two years in Milan she appeared in grand opera, scoring a triumph, and her name is now a familiar one to opera-goers in Europe, as well as to Victor customers in America, who have had the privilege of hearing her beautiful voice in many solos and concerted numbers.

IMPERIAL QUARTET, of Chicago

This fine male voice organization, which has been a prominent feature of the concert stage in the Middle West, has developed the art of four-part singing to a high degree of excellence, the individual members being unusually well equipped, vocally and temperamentally, each for his particular part, and years of association in the work has resulted in an excellent ensemble. The Imperials have made a permanent place for themselves in the concert field of which they may be justly proud, and they now prove themselves to be excellent record makers as well.

JANIS, ELSIE, Comedienne

Elsie Janis is one of the most charming and gifted women on the American stage, and whatever she undertakes it is sure to be a finished piece of character delineation. Miss Janis was one of the stars of the "Lady of the Slipper" production, and the combination of Montgomery-Stone-Janis was certainly the strongest all-star feature in the musical comedy field. After a splendidly successful season in London she returned to America and joined the "Century Girl" forces during the season of 1916-17. After a war sojourn in Europe she returned to the United States.

JONES, ADA, Comedienne

No series of records in the entire Victor Catalogue has given more innocent pleasure to the public than the clever solos in various dialects by Miss Jones, the quaint Irish and other dialect specialties of Jones and Spencer, and the popular songs of the day given as duets by Miss Jones and Mr. Murray.

Whether Miss Jones' impersonation be that of a darky maid, a "fresh" saleslady, a cowboy girl, a country damsel, Mrs. Flanagan or an Irish colleen, a Bowery tough girl, a newsboy or a grandmother, it is invariably a perfect one of its kind.

KELLOGG, CHARLES, the "Nature Singer"

This gifted naturalist has been talking to delighted audiences all over the country about the wild life—in story, pictures and bird songs. But his pre-eminent gift, that has been his from birth, places him unique among men—the ability to sing like a bird. He does not imitate the birds by lip whistling or otherwise, but actually sings their songs from his throat.

Mr. Kellogg also adapts his bird singing to some of the most beautiful classic compositions, played by the orchestra. Two fine examples of this bird singing are given here, and two records of what might be called "bird conversations." The singer gives an interesting chat about various birds, illustrating their songs and showing how they talk to each other.

The countless admirers of this gifted nature singer will be delighted with these interesting examples of his art.

KIPLING, RUDYARD

Born in Bombay, India, 1865, and educated in England. He returned to India as a young man, and there wrote the stories and poems which have made his name immortal. To him the "Tommies" who fought so bravely under Haig owe their introduction to the world in general and America in particular. His ringing ballads and lilting songs are generously recorded, and will be found under their own titles.

KLINE, OLIVE, Soprano

KLINE

Olive Kline is one of the most promising sopranos in the concert field. She has a voice of exceptional freshness and of youthful quality and sings in a manner to justify brilliant expectations for her future as an oratorio and concert artist.

Her list of engagements is already a very long one, and includes the Worcester Festival; Apollo Club, Brooklyn; Norfolk, Conn., Festival; Richmond Festival; McDowell Festival, etc.

This young singer's work in solos and concerted records has given pleasure to a very large circle of hearers, and the Victor has been much congratulated on her exclusive engagement.

LA FORGE, FRANK, Pianist

HALL'S STUDIO
LA FORGE

Frank La Forge is one of the most brilliant American pianists now before the public. He originally came to the front by virtue of his unique gifts as an accompanist, and was especially helpful to Marcella Sembrich in this regard. More recently he has been successful as a concert pianist, composer and coach for singers. He studied the piano with the late Theodore Leschetizky, who was a pupil of Czerny, who in turn was a pupil of Beethoven, so that his musical career was started under the most favorable auspices. The records listed below fairly represent the singular playing of this gifted artist.

LAPITINO, FRANCIS J., Harpist

As a harp soloist and composer of his instrument, Francis J. Lapitino has won an enviable reputation, especially since his playing has been so warmly appreciated by the wide and ever widening Victor audience. He was formerly harpist with the Philadelphia Opera during the Hammerstein régime, and afterward played with the Philadelphia Orchestra under Carl Pohlig and Leopold Stokowski. Lately he has devoted himself to solo work, composition and the making of Victor records.

LAUDER

LAUDER, SIR HARRY, Comedian (Law'-der)

The success of this popular Scottish comedian in America has been phenomenal, and he is declared to be one of the greatest entertainers now before the public. To hear him sing his amusing songs and specialties, however, it is not necessary to visit the few cities where he appears, for the Victor now offers records of his best numbers. These records were made by Mr. Lauder at the Victor's Camden Laboratory, and are so natural that the hearer will be simply astonished, every word and whisper being absolutely distinct.

It is hard to define just what it is in Lauder's work that makes him so popular. But the secret probably is that he is simply natural, and bubbles over with wit and melody because he can't help it!

The new agreement made by the Victor with Mr. Lauder is one of the most important ever made, Lauder being the highest salaried entertainer in the world. This new arrangement calls for the comedian's services for a term of years.

NOTE—In many of Lauder's records he concludes by saying something which sounds very much like the slang term "Get next." However, it is "Gude Nicht" (Scotch for "Good Night") which the comedian is cordially saying! A glossary of Scotch words used by Mr. Lauder in his records will be furnished by the catalog editor on request.

LUCIA DI LAMMERMOOR (Loo-chee'-ah) (In Italian except as noted)

The plot of Lucia is founded on Sir Walter Scott's novel, The Bride of Lammermoor. Music by Gætano Donizetti. Lord Henry Ashton, Lucy's brother, knowing nothing of her attachment to his enemy, Edgar of Ravenswood, has arranged a marriage between Lucy and the wealthy Lord Arthur, in order to retrieve his fallen fortunes. Learning that Lucy is in love with Edgar, he intercepts her lover's letters and executes a forged paper, which convinces Lucy that Edgar is false to her. Convinced of her lover's perfidy, and urged by the necessities of her brother, she unwillingly consents to wed Sir Arthur. The guests are assembled for the ceremony, and Lucy has just signed the contract, when Edgar appears and denounces Lucy for her fickleness. Edgar is driven from the castle, and the shock being too much for the gentle mind of Lucy, she becomes insane, kills her husband and dies. Edgar, overcome by these tragic happenings, visits the churchyard of Ravenswood and stabs himself.

MACDONOUGH, HARRY, Tenor

Mr. Macdonough is one of the most popular singers on the Victor staff, and his list of Victor records contains a wide range of selections, both standard and popular, consisting of solos (ballads, sacred songs, hymns, and concert songs) and many duets and quartets with various other Victor singers.

This tenor's correct method of singing and the clearness of his diction are most refreshing at a time when indifferent vocalization and careless enunciation are so much in evidence. Mr. Macdonough has made many records for the Victor, and in every one of them this important artistic principle is kept clear and distinct. He has many friends, and is making many more among the music-loving public.

MANON (Mah-non) (Massenet) Sung in French unless otherwise noted

Opera in four acts; words by Meilhac and Gille, after Abbé Prévost's novel. First production, Paris, 1884. First U. S. production 1885, with Hauk, Giannini and Del Puente. Some notable revivals—1895, with Sanderson and de Reszke; 1899, with Saville, Van Dyk and Plançon; and the recent Metropolitan production, with Caruso and Farrar.

MANON LESCAUT (Man-on' Les-koh') (Puccini) Sung in Italian

Opera in four acts, the libretto, founded on Abbé Prévost's novel, being mainly the work of the composer. The Abbé Prévost romance has been treated operatically by several composers.

Manon's brother, Lescaut, is escorting his sister to the convent where she is to complete her education. While Lescaut is carousing with companions, Manon meets des Grieux, who chances to be dining at the inn, dressed as a student. School not appealing to the girl, she agrees to elope, thereby spoiling the plans of Geronte, who had planned to abduct her. Manon tires of des Grieux and his poverty, and leaves him for Geronte; but when des Grieux appears again she runs away with him. Geronte denounces Manon as an abandoned woman. She is condemned to be deported to Louisiana. Des Grieux and Lescaut try to rescue her, but the attempt fails and the former begs the Commandant to permit him to accompany her. In the final scene the lovers are shown in a "desert" near New Orleans. Des Grieux leaves Manon to search for water, and returns just in time to see her die in his arms.

MARSH, LUCY ISABELLE, Soprano

MARSH

The career of Lucy Marsh is another demonstration of what may be accomplished by an American girl under an American teacher. No one who listens to her faultless singing can but feel gratification that both pupil and teacher are native born. She was a pupil of the late John Walter Hall, of New York.

Miss Marsh's voice is a lyric soprano of exceptional beauty, and its exquisite purity, smoothness and flexibility are delightful to hear.

The singer's flawless technique, the absolute purity of the soprano tones, and her perfect intonation always give the keenest delight to the appreciative listener.

The Victor has secured the services of this artist, and now presents a number of selections by her.

MARTHA (Vienna, 1847) (Flotow) (Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted)
See "Victrola Book of the Opera" for complete illustrated description
Opera in four acts; libretto by St. George and Friedrich; music by Friedrich von Flotow. The opera is an elaboration of "Lady Henrietta, or the Servant of Greenwich," a ballet-pantomime, with text by St. George and music by Flotow, Burgmuller and Deldevez, which was suggested by an actual incident, and presented in Paris in 1844. Martha was first produced at the Court Opera, Vienna, 1847; London, 1858; Paris, 1858; Milan, 1859. First American production 1852.

MASSENET, JULES EMILE FREDERIC (1842-1912)
(Mahss'-'n-nay)

MASSENET

Jules Massenet, whose death occurred in 1912, was one of the best known of modern French composers. He was born in Monteaux, near St. Étienne, in 1842, and numbered among his teachers Ambroise Thomas, composer of Mignon. At the age of twenty-one he carried off the Grand Prix de Rome with his cantata David Rizzio. He composed prolifically for the lyric stage, the orchestra, the voice and the piano. His latest work, Thérèse, was recently produced at Monte Carlo. One of his most popular operas is Manon; others are Hérodiade, Werther, Le Cid, and La Navarraise.

For records of Massenet's compositions see his operas, "Cid, Le," "Cléopâtre," "Hérodiade," "Jongleur," "Manon," "Panurge," "Thaïs" and "Werther"; also "Angelus," "Chant de Guerre Cosaque," "Elégie" and "Twilight"

MENDELSSOHN, FELIX (Men'-d'l-sohn) (1809-1847)

MENDELSSOHN

Born Hamburg, 1809. Son of banker. Bartholdy, mother's name, assumed afterwards because of inheritance conditions. At 8 played piano well. At 15 had already written four operas! In 1829 went to London, made great success as organist and pianist. In 1835 settled at Leipsic, directed Gewandhaus concerts. Oratorio, St. Paul, performed Dusseldorf, 1837. Married Fr. Jeanrenaud, daughter of clergyman. In 1843 founded Leipsic Conservatory, of vast influence. Elijah, greatest work, produced London, 1846. Died Leipsic, 1847. •

MESSIAH (Dublin, 1742) (Handel)

"The Messiah" had its origin at one of the darkest moments of the composer's life. At a time when his operatic enterprises had come to nought, and with spirits depressed and fortune gone, he began the great series of oratorios by which his genius lives today. "The Messiah" was first given in Dublin with a mere handful of performers—a chorus hardly more numerous than many a village church can get together for a harvest festival, serving to make known a work afterwards to be performed by thousands in massed choirs at a modern Handel festival.

MIGNON (Meen-yon') (Paris, 1866) (Ambroise Thomas)

Opera in three acts; text by Barbier and Carre, based upon Goethe's Wilhelm Meister; music by Ambroise Thomas. First production, Paris, 1866; London, 1870; N. Y., 1872.

The first act opens in the yard of a German inn. A group of actors, including the beautiful Filina, are on their way to the Prince's castle, where they are to give a performance. A strolling band of gypsies arrives, and Mignon, who is with them, is ordered to dance for the entertainment of the guests. The girl is weary, and on her refusal to dance, Giarno, the leader, threatens her. Lothario tries to protect the young girl, and Giarno turns upon the old man.

Wilhelm, a wandering student, appears and rescues both Mignon and the harper, and to save the girl from further persecution engages her as his page. Wilhelm is invited by Filina to join the troupe in their visit to the castle. He consents, and the flirtation which follows arouses the jealousy of Mignon, who, touched by Wilhelm's kindness, has fallen in love with him. In despair she is about to throw herself into the lake when she hears the notes of Lothario's harp. She asks his protection, and rashly tells him she wishes the castle would burn to the ground. The demented old man, thinking only to please her, goes into the castle. Filina and the actors appear, and Filina sends Mignon to the castle for some flowers she has left there. Suddenly flames burst from the windows, and Wilhelm rushes to the burning building and carries out the unconscious Mignon. Wilhelm is soon cured of his infatuation for Filina and discovers Mignon's devoted attachment for him.

MIGNON AND LOTHARIO

The third act takes place in the palace of Lothario, who has instinctively returned to his ancestral home, bringing with him Mignon. They are accompanied by Wilhelm, who now realizes that he loves his youthful ward. The young girl is soon discovered to be the long lost child of Lothario, who suddenly recovers his reason. Father and daughter are reunited, while a blessing is bestowed on the young people by the happy Lothario.

MONTGOMERY and STONE, Comedians

David Craig Montgomery and Frederick A. Stone began in Kansas City as a song-and-dance team. Half a generation, and they were among the foremost of comedians. Montgomery died at the height of his career. His voice lives on, however, in the records he and his partner made for the Victor when the "team" was on everyone's lips.

MOZART, WOLFGANG (1756–1791) (Moh'-tsart)

MOZART

Born 1756, Salzburg. Son of musician and teacher. When 4 could play piano, at 6 wrote a concerto. Learned violin and traveled as a prodigy. At 11 wrote an opera, never given. At 12 concertmeister of Salzburg church, and wrote several masses. When 13 went to Italy, where the young genius astonished by his musical knowledge. Was knighted by Pope. Produced and conducted his opera Mitridate, 1770. Returned home, and in 1782 married Constance Weber. Period of poverty followed, ended by production in 1786 of Marriage of Figaro. This success followed by greatest work, Don Giovanni, in 1787. Other operas were Cosi and Titus, not successful. In spite of failing health from overwork wrote Magic Flute, produced 1791, and died some months later. Besides operas wrote much sacred and chamber music, many orchestral works, etc.

MURPHY

Lambert Murphy is an American, and was born in the city of Springfield, Mass. As a boy he sang in church choirs, and later, while at Harvard University, took much interest in musical matters. During his senior year at Harvard he commenced his concert career, continuing it for two seasons after his graduation in 1908, and filling many important engagements, including concerts of the Boston Festival Orchestra (three successive seasons), and the Handel and Haydn Society. He was soloist at St. Bartholomew's Church, New York, but resigned his position there when he went to the Metropolitan in 1911, in order to devote his time entirely to operatic work. Mr. Murphy is naturally endowed with a tenor of unusually pure quality, which, during his professional career, has developed in richness, warmth and color.

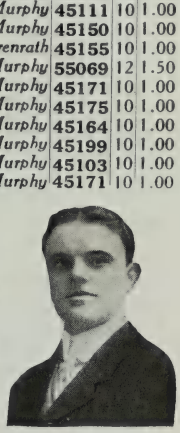
MURRAY, BILLY, Comedian



For duets with other singers see "Jones and Murray," and "Porter," also "Duets, Vocal." For quartets in which Murray sings see "American Quartet"

Billy Murray is one of the most successful of all American singers of humorous songs, and probably entertains, through his Victor records, a larger audience than any other singer who has ever lived. His Irish songs, the rapid-fire type of comic song with no breathing places (Billy never seems to take breath!); the topical song; popular sentimental songs; dialect specialties—no matter what the line of work he undertakes it is sure to be cleverly done.

NEAPOLITAN TRIO—Violin, Harp, Flute

Nothing, perhaps, that the Victor has done in years has so pleased the public as the making of the fine series of violin, flute and harp trios by the Neapolitan Trio, which have been pronounced perfect examples of pure music. This organization which the Victor has assembled for these instrumental trios has made a number of sweet-toned and altogether delightful reproductions, and the records should be secured by every music-lover.

NOTE.—Under this heading are grouped a few negro songs of the old-fashioned type—plantation songs, darky comedy, etc., as distinguished from the somewhat boisterous type of "coon song" now popular. For the so-called "coon songs" of the present day see Collins, Collins and Harlan, Jones, Jones and Spencer, Murray, Peerless Quartet, Victor Minstrel Co., Greene and American Quartet.

NEVIN, ETHELBERT (1862-1901) This famous American composer was born in Edgeworth, Pennsylvania, November 25, 1862, and began his musical training in Boston, where he studied piano and composition. His work as a composer was confined almost entirely to songs and piano pieces of the lyrical type and of finished workmanship.

His early death has been deeply lamented in the United States, as he was one of the American composers in whom was felt the greatest promise for the future. His compositions, including his best known song, "The Rosary," are world famous.

For records of Nevin's compositions see "Little Boy Blue," "Mighty Lak' a Rose," "Narcissus," "Oh, That We Two," "Rosary" and "Serenade"

O

NOTE—In listing the many selections beginning with the word O or Oh, this rule has been observed: In all foreign titles the word is written O, and in English titles Oh, as is customary. For example, if you want "O sole mio," or "Oh, Dry Those Tears" do not look for "Oh sole mio"—or "O Dry Those Tears."

OFFENBACH, JACQUES (Of'-fen-bach) (1819-1890)

Born Offenbach-on-Main. Son of Cantor of Jewish synagogue. Went to Paris in youth. Studied 'cello at Conservatoire; played in orchestra of Opéra Comique. Wrote successful songs and became conductor at Théâtre Français. Compositions number ninety, mostly light operas written in twenty-five years. Best known operas Grande Duchesse, La Belle Hélène, Madame Favart, all formerly popular here. Only work now in vogue in America is Tales of Hoffmann, revived by Hammerstein in 1907, now in Philadelphia-Chicago repertoire, and in English by Aborn Opera Company. He visited America in 1875.

O'HARA, GEOFFREY, Tenor—See also "Duets, Vocal"

Mr. O'Hara is a Canadian composer who has produced a number of excellent compositions, and is also himself a singer. One of his compositions is "Your Eyes Have Told Me," of which a record has been made by Caruso.

A highly interesting work in which Mr. O'Hara has been engaged is the conservation of the music of our American Indians, to which enterprise he was appointed by Secretary of the Interior Lane. He spent some time among the Navajos in Arizona, who are the richest in treasures of Indian music, encouraging them to sing, and taking down their melodies note by note on paper.

ORFEO ED EURIDICE (Or-feh'-oh ayd Ay-oo-ree-dee'-cheh) (Orpheus and Eurydice) (Vienna, Oct. 5, 1762) (Gluck)

Book by Ramieri De Calzabigi; music by Christoph Willibald von Gluck. First production in Vienna, October 5, 1762, Gluck conducting. First Paris production, 1774, when the rôle of Orpheus was transposed for high tenor. First London production at Covent Garden, June 26, 1770. Other revivals were during the Winter Garden season of 1863; in 1885 (in German), by the Metropolitan Opera under Walter Damrosch; the English production in 1886 by the National Opera Company; the Abbey revival in Italian in 1892; and the Metropolitan production of 1910, with Homer, Gadski and Gluck.

The opera has had only one adequate American production previous to this Metropolitan revival, and that was during the American Opera Company season of 1886—the Abbey revival of 1892 meeting with but indifferent success.

This opera, which has been called "Gluck's incomparable masterpiece," and of which the great Fétis wrote, "it is one of the most beautiful productions of genius," may be properly termed a purely classical music drama. The music is exquisite in its delicacy and grace, while the story is an interesting and affecting one. "Orpheus" may be called the grandfather of grand opera, it being the oldest work of its kind to hold its place on the stage, the first representation occurring over one hundred and fifty years ago.

SETTING OF ACT III

The story concerns the Greek poet Orpheus, who grieves deeply over the death of his wife Euridice, and finally declares he will enter the realms of Pluto and search for her among the spirits of the departed. The goddess Love appears and promises to aid him, on condition that when he has found Euridice he will return to earth without once looking at her. (See "Victrola Book of the Opera" for complete illustrated description.)

PAGANINI, NICCOLO, (Pagh-ah-nee'-nee) (1784-1840) Violinist, Composer

Most famous of all violinists. B. Genoa, Italy. Invented certain violin effects, developed pizzicato and harmonic playing. Made sensational tours of Europe. Popularly thought to be in league with supernatural powers. Many of his most important compositions and studies were published only after his death. His Guarnerius violin is preserved in the Municipal Palace at Genoa.

PAGLIACCI, I (Pah-ly-ah'-chee) The Players (In Italian unless otherwise noted)

Dramatic opera in two acts; libretto and music both by Ruggiero Leoncavallo. First production, Milan, 1892; London, 1893; first American production, 1894, with Kronold, Montegriffo and Campanari. The scene is laid in Calabria, between 1865 and 1870.

During the orchestral introduction Tonio, in clown costume, appears and explains that the subject of the play is taken from real life; reminds the audience that actors are but men, with passions like their own, and that the author has endeavored to express the real feelings and sentiments of the characters he will introduce. He then orders up the curtain. The first act shows the entrance to an Italian village. Canio, and his troupe of strolling players, or pagliacci, having paraded through the village, now announce a performance for that evening at seven, and Canio goes with Peppe into the tavern. Tonio, the clown, remains behind, ostensibly to care for the donkey, but in reality to make love to Nedda, Canio's wife. She repulses him, striking him with her whip, and he swears to be revenged. Silvio, a rich young villager, in love with Nedda, now joins her and begs her to fly with him. She refuses, but admits that she loves him, her confession being overheard by Tonio, who hurries in search of his master. Canio returns too late to catch Silvio, but mad with jealousy, he demands the lover's name, and when Nedda refuses, tries to kill her, but is restrained by the others. Nedda goes to dress, and Canio is in despair at the thought of being obliged to play while his heart is breaking.

Act II. The audience is now assembled and the play begins. This proves to be the usual farce in which the clown makes love to Columbine during the absence of her husband, Punchinello. Strangely enough, this conventional farce is very like the situation in the real lives of the players, and when Punchinello (Canio) arrives and surprises the lovers, as the play demands, he loses his head as he hears Columbine repeat in the farce the very words Tonio had heard her say to the real lover earlier in the day. Mad with rage, he again demands her lover's name. Nedda tries to save the situation by continuing the play, and the audience is delighted by such realistic acting, until the intensity of Canio's passion begins to terrify them. The other players endeavor to silence him, but in vain. Finally, stung by his taunts, Nedda defies him and is stabbed, Canio hoping that in her death agony she will reveal the name of her lover. She falls, calling upon Silvio, who rushes from the crowd only to receive in turn the dagger of the outraged husband. As Canio is disarmed by the peasants he cries, as if in a daze, "The comedy is ended."

PEARL FISHERS—Pescatori di Perle (Paris, 1863) (Bizet)

(All sung in Italian unless otherwise noted.)

This beautiful opera tells of the love of two Cingalese pearl fishers for Leila, a priestess, and of the generosity of the unsuccessful one, who helps his rival and his love escape at the cost of his own life. Nadir appears to Zurga, a lifelong friend, during a dance of the pearl fishermen. A mysterious veiled lady, who comes once a year to pray for the fisheries, appears and begins her invocation. Despite her veil, she is recognized by Nadir and contrives to let him know that his love is returned. She is reminded later, at a temple, of her vow to renounce love and marriage. The high priest, who reminds her that the penalty is death, then leaves her alone, and Nadir enters. The lovers are surprised by Nourabad, the high priest, and Nadir flees. He is recaptured, and Zurga is brought to pronounce sentence upon the pair. Their funeral pyre is ready when Zurga cries that the camp is on fire; the lovers escape in the mêlee; Zurga later confesses and is burned to death.

BURR MEYER CAMPBELL CROXTON

PEERLESS QUARTET

This popular singing organization has made a number of fine records for the Victor Catalogue, and the manner in which these selections have been rendered has made the Peerless a welcome feature of the entertainment staff. The late Frank C. Stanley was the organizer and manager of the Peerless for many years, and many of the records listed below were made by the Quartet during the life of this popular basso. After his death Mr. Meyer became the basso of the organization.

PIETRO (Peay'-troh) Accordionist

Pietro's full name is Pietro Deiro, but in all his professional work he uses only the first name and is known universally as Pietro. To say that the Victor's Pietro records have made a "hit" is putting it but mildly, and that much-abused word "furore" might even be used. That no such accordion playing has ever been reproduced on records is the universal opinion of customers who have heard the fine numbers already issued. The first accordion was manufactured in Vienna about 1829, and soon became very popular throughout Europe. It was a very simple affair, however, compared to Pietro's instrument, which has an elaborate keyboard with hundreds of keys.

The overtures especially have caused a sensation, and they give one an idea of the wonderful instrument used by Pietro—which he calls a "piano-accordion." It might be called also a full military band and an orchestra, judging by the effects produced. Pursuing its usual policy of always giving Victor customers the best, Pietro, being the greatest accordionist in the world, has been engaged to make Victor records.

PILZER, MAXIMILIAN, Violinist

PILZER

Maximilian Pilzer was born in New York City not so many years ago, and when still a very young boy went to Europe where he completed his studies with Gustav Hollaender and Joseph Joachim. With a foreign reputation he returned to the United States, appearing with some of the leading orchestras, acting as concertmaster of the Russian Symphony Orchestra and the People's Symphony Orchestra. At the present day Mr. Pilzer is soloist and concertmaster of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. The list of records offered by the Victor exhibits in a marked degree the fine playing of this young artist.

PORTER, STEVE—Comic Songs and Specialties

Mr. Porter is one of the pioneer makers of talking machine records, having been engaged in this work since 1897. He is a most versatile singer and comedian, and an experienced male quartet member. His work in the American Quartet is of the greatest value to that organization and his famous Irish and other dialect specialties have been much enjoyed by lovers of clean comedy.

PRYOR'S BAND, ARTHUR PRYOR, Conductor

Pr

Pryor's Band, now in the seventeenth year of its existence, has settled into its permanent place as one of the greatest bands in the world, under the leadership of the brilliant conductor and composer, Arthur Pryor.

At the annual engagements of the band at Asbury Park, and Willow Grove in Philadelphia, it was estimated that this organization played to more than one million people. Mr. Pryor's Victor audience is a still larger one, and the superb Pryor-Victor records are enjoyed in every part of the world.

RATTAY, HOWARD, Violinist

Mr. Rattay, who is one of the most prominent violinists of Philadelphia, is a pupil of Joachim, having spent several years under the tuition of that distinguished master of the violin. Several years ago Mr. Rattay was persuaded to become the concertmeister of the Victor Orchestra, and his splendid work in that organization is familiar to Victor audiences, both in his solos and in the accompaniments for Victor singers. For Mr. Rattay's records see "Violin Records" and "Instrumental Duets."

REIMERS

Mr. Reimers, who has for years played an important rôle in Europe, both as a lieder singer and as soloist at important oratorio performances and who has been acclaimed by the press as one of the finest interpreters of Beethoven and Schubert, has made a very great success in America in recitals and other concerts.

Musical America recently said of Mr. Reimers' singing: "His voice has flexibility and sweetness of lyrical quality and his singing shows much artistic discretion, refinement of style and tastefulness in phrasing and nuance."

The series of records, both solos and some charming duets with Mme. Gluck, which this singer has made for the Victor, have been very successful.

REITZ

It has always been the impression of the average xylophone player that he alone among instrumental soloists was privileged to "drop" notes ad libitum—at least so audiences have come to believe! But Mr. Reitz has shown, in the series of records he has made for the Victor, that accuracy is just as possible in "wooden music" as with other instruments.

The Reitz-Victor xylophone records are the finest ever made anywhere, both in tone and accuracy of playing. Mr. Reitz has played a number of charming selections on the orchestra bells.

For the Reitz records see "Bell Solos" and "Xylophone Solos."

THE QUARTET—RIGOLETTO, ACT III

Ri

The story tells of the gay and unprincipled Duke of Mantua, who is assisted in his crimes by his jester, Rigoletto, a hunchback. The father of one of the Duke's victims is mocked by Rigoletto, and launches upon him a father's awful curse, which stuns and sobers the jester, as he, too, has a daughter, Gilda, unknown to the court. On his way home Rigoletto meets a professional assassin, Sparafucile, who offers, for a price, to kill any enemy he may have. Rigoletto says he may need him later. The Duke, in the guise of a young student, has already met Gilda, not knowing who she is, and the young girl has fallen in love with him. When Rigoletto has left the house the Duke's courtiers abduct Gilda and take her to the Palace. The father's rage is terrible to witness, and he goes to the Palace, but too late to save his daughter. She pleads for the Duke's life, but Rigoletto swears to kill him, and arranges with the assassin, Sparafucile, to accomplish the deed. The Duke is lured to a lonely inn by Sparafucile's attractive sister, Maddalena, and is about to be murdered when Maddalena, who has taken a fancy to him, begs for his life. Sparafucile consents provided a substitute should happen along before midnight. Gilda, whom Rigoletto had brought hither (disguised as a page) in order that she might witness the fickleness of her lover, has been listening to the conversation, and now resolves to save the Duke's life at the cost of her own. She enters the hut, is stabbed by Sparafucile, who delivers the body to Rigoletto according to agreement. Rigoletto is about to cast the body into the river when he hears the Duke's voice in the distance. The wretched man opens the sack, sees his daughter and falls senseless on her body.

RILEY, JAMES WHITCOMB (1853-1916) Recitations

PHOTO NICHOLSON
RILEY

Riley, the "Hoosier Poet," was perhaps the best-beloved of American rhymers, in any generation. His first book, in Indiana dialect, brought him immediate fame, and this spread rapidly throughout the whole of the English-speaking world. Now that he has passed away, to hear him recite his own poems on the Victrola is an unforgetable experience. For records of Riley Poems by other speakers and singers see "Bear Story," "Her Beautiful Hands," "Knee-Deep in June," Little Orphant Annie," "Name of Old Glory," "Old Sweetheart," "Our Hired Girl," "Prayer Perfect," "Raggedy Man," "There, Little Girl."

ROBIN HOOD—Operetta by Reginald de Koven

Comic Operetta in three acts; libretto by Harry B. Smith; music by Reginald de Koven. First performance in Chicago, June 9, 1890, by the Bostonians, who sang the opera more than four thousand times. Recently revived at the New Amsterdam, New York, by the de Koven Opera Company.

SCENE FROM ROBIN HOOD

"Robin Hood" is the most genuinely and deservedly popular of all American comic operas. It is interesting to remember that Mr. de Koven wrote the score at the age of twenty-five, after having previously composed several operas, among them "Don Quixote," also produced by the Bostonians. "Robin Hood" has now been presented more than eight thousand times, and in nearly every country of the globe.

RODEHEAVER, HOMER, Baritone

RODEHEAVER

Every one of the hundreds of thousands attending the revival meetings of "Billy" Sunday, the former baseball star, who forsook the diamond for the saving of souls, is familiar with the genial, big-voiced baritone who at these services sang revival hymns so sweetly and clearly. Homer Rodeheaver is a Southerner. He began his career in a mountain log camp, and in later years learned the trombone and played in the 4th Tennessee Band, going with them to the Spanish-American War. After singing and playing his way through the Ohio Wesleyan University, he leaned toward the law, but was induced to enter the evangelical field.

ROSSINI, GIOACCHINO (Ros-see'-nee)

ROSSINI

One of the greatest of Italian opera composers. Born Pesaro, Italy, 1792. Mother opera singer and father musician. Studied piano from 7. At 15 went to Bologna Conservatory. When 16 wrote cantata, and in 1810 an opera. During 1812 produced five light operas, and in 1813 first grand opera, Tancredi, a success; then Italian in Algiers. In 1816 produced his finest of comic operas, Barber of Seville. In next eight years wrote twenty operas. Went to London, 1823, and produced his works with success. Went to Paris, managed Théâtre Italien, producing his masterpiece, William Tell. In 1832 wrote famous Stabat Mater. Last years spent quietly and happily among devoted friends. Died in Paris, 1868.

SASSOLI, ADA, Harpist (Sass'-oh-lih)

This most romantic and picturesque of musical instruments is often considered to be useful only in the accompanying of songs, but should be pre-eminently a solo instrument.

To make a faithful reproduction of the tones of the harp has long been the ambition of the best recorders in America and Europe, but their labors were in vain until the Victor, after years of experimenting, announced the result of these experiments in a series of beautiful reproductions, by Miss Ada Sassoli, whose artistic playing is familiar to concert-goers. Miss Sassoli's exquisite tone, her mastery of phrasing and amazing technique are perfectly recorded.

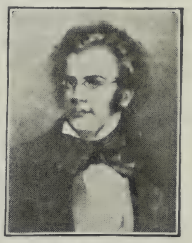
SCHUBERT, FRANZ PETER (1797–1828) Compositions by



SCHUBERT

Born near Vienna, 1797. Son of peasant schoolmaster. Boy taught violin and voice by local choirmaster. At 16 wrote 1st Symphony. At 17 began writing songs with remarkable facility—between 17 and 18 wrote 144 songs, including masterpiece, Erlking.

Schubert led a somewhat Bohemian life, never married and was frequently out of funds. Was much underpaid, some of his best songs bringing only 20c. each! Works numerous, including 600 songs, 10 symphonies, several overtures, much piano and chamber music, operas, etc. Schubert was the greatest of all song composers, and really creator of art of song. Also most remarkable of youthful writers. Died 1828, leaving many MSS. valued by officials at $12.50 (1) but which afterward made the fortune of several publishers.

RECORDS OF SCHUBERT COMPOSITIONS—(See "Educational Records," "Ave Maria," "Coronach," "Du bist die Ruh," "Erlkönig," "Hark! Hark! the Lark," "Lindenbaum, Der," "Marche Militaire," "Moment Musical," "Quartet in A Minor," "Rosamunde—Ballet," "Serenade," "Symphony in B Minor," "Wanderer," "Who is Sylvia" and "Wohin?"

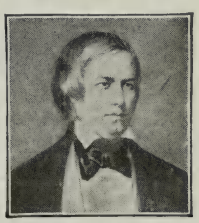
SCHUMANN, ROBERT (1810-1856) Compositions by



SCHUMANN

Born Zwickau, Saxony. Son of bookseller. Learned piano at 6. Began composition at 7. When 16 father died; boy went Heidelberg University. Studied piano at Leipsic; injured finger and turned to composition, first piano, and, after marriage to Clara Wieck, famous pianist, other forms of composition. Toured Russia, 1844; lived Dresden, 1845; Director of Musical Society Dusseldorf 1850. Wrote symphonies, one opera, Genoveva, and many other works, including his great series of songs, composing 130 of these in one year.

SCHUMANN COMPOSITIONS—See "Du bist wie eine Blume," "Frühlingsnacht," "Gypsy Life," "Hey Baloo," "Lotus-blume, Die," "Mondnacht," "Prophet Bird," "Quartet in A Minor," "Return of Spring," "Romance No. 1," "Träumerei," "Two Grenadiers" and "Voice of Love"

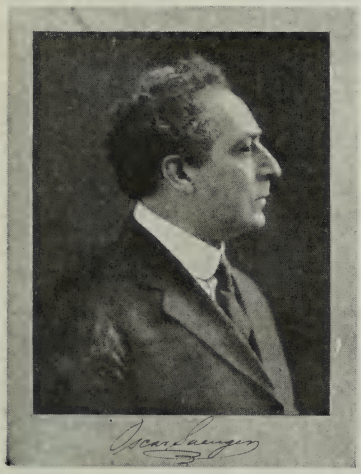
SINGING LESSONS—The Oscar Saenger Course

The Oscar Saenger Course in Vocal Training is a practical, efficient system for teaching people to sing. It is based on the simplest and most direct principle of all teaching, which for the first time is now applied to singing in a new and original way.



No matter where they may live, all those who wish to sing may now learn to do so under the direction of a master who is credited with having entered more pupils upon successful operatic, oratorio or concert careers than has any other teacher in the United States.

The course consists of ten double-faced Victor records, which provide twenty lessons in vocalization. There is a separate set for each of the following five voices: Soprano, Mezzo-Soprano, Tenor, Baritone and Bass. In the Mezzo-Soprano there are special instructions for the training of children's voices.

With each set of records for any of the above voices there is also provided a textbook of supplementary information for the student, which information is set forth so definitely and clearly, that the art of singing may be fully understood by those who have had no previous training.

All the necessary technique and all the necessary exercises for the development of perfect vocalization are provided, explained and worked out in the same definitely constructive way as they are in Oscar Saenger's own studio.

The Oscar Saenger Course in Vocal Training for any of the voices mentioned below may be procured from any Victor dealer.

Each set is furnished in a special container as follows:

INTERIOR OF SISTINE CHAPEL, ROME

SISTINE CHOIR RECORDS—of Music in use before the "Motu Proprio"

This style of music was recently in vogue not only in Rome, but throughout the world, and it might be said that there were no church solemnities without sacred music of masters such as Capocci, Battaglia, Aldega and others. When Pope Pius X issued his "Motu Proprio" on sacred music, music of this kind was interdicted in all church functions, and may now be heard only in concert-rooms or colleges.

The Victor was fortunate enough to secure a number of records by the Sistine Choir before the Pope's order went into effect, and now offers Americans an opportunity of hearing this most famous of religious singing bodies. Among these records is a remarkable one by Prof. Moreschi, the famous male soprano. (For Gregorian music see Gregorian Records.)

SOUSA'S BAND—JOHN PHILIP SOUSA, Conductor

NOTE—Sousa's Band records are included by title under "Band Records," "Dance Records" and in body of catalogue.

Sousa's Band is acknowledged to be one of the finest concert bands in the world, and has delighted millions of hearers, not only in America but throughout the countries visited by the band during its five triumphal tours of Europe. Many fine records by this famous band are in the Victor lists, including a superb series of the Sousa marches, the most successful of all musical compositions, more than six million copies having been sold, netting their composer the greatest royalty ever paid an American composer. They are popular in every country on the globe, and are played by twenty thousand bands in the U. S. alone. Sousa's Band plays only for the Victor.

SPENCER, ELIZABETH, Soprano—See also "Duets, Vocal"

Elizabeth Spencer, who is Mrs. E. B. Southworth in private life, was born in the West, and received her first vocal instruction from Hattie Sims, of Denver, Colorado, who was in turn a pupil of Marchesi. Later she studied in Paris with Jacques Bouhy, the celebrated Belgian baritone. She has been very successful as a soprano in the United States, and particularly in making Victor records, which may be said to be an art in itself. Elizabeth Spencer has a son who promptly joined the engineers as soon as the United States entered the Great War, and perhaps because of that she was particularly active singing at the various war camps, where she was a great favorite with the troops. Some of the songs she used on these occasions are here recorded.

LANDE SETTING OF ACT III VICTROLA BOOK OF THE OPERA

TANNHÄUSER (Tahn'-hoy-zer)

Words and music by Richard Wagner. First presented Dresden, 1845; Paris, 1861; London, 1876; New York, 1859.

Tannhäuser, with its poetry, and romance; its characters, who are real human beings and not mythological gods, goddesses and heroes, appeals strongly to the average opera-goer. The story tells of conflict between two kinds of love: pure love as distinguished from mere sensuous passion; and relates how the higher love triumphed in the end.

Tannhäuser, a knight and minstrel, in an evil moment, succumbs to the wiles of Venus and dwells for a year in the Venusberg. Tiring of these monotonous delights, he leaves the goddess and returns to his home, where he is warmly received and told that the fair Elizabeth, niece of the Landgrave, still mourns for him. He is urged to compete in the Tournament of Song not far distant, the prize being the hand of Elizabeth. The theme of the contest is The Nature of Love, and when Tannhäuser's turn arrives the evil influence of the Venusberg is apparent when he delivers a wild and profane eulogy of passion. Outraged by this insult, the minstrels draw their swords to slay him, but Tannhäuser is protected by Elizabeth, who pleads for his life. Coming to his senses, too late, he repents, and when a company of Pilgrims pass on their way to Rome, he joins them to seek pardon for his sin. In the last act we see Elizabeth, weary and worn, supported by the noble Wolfram, who also loves her, watching for the Pilgrims to return, but Tannhäuser is not among them. Elizabeth is overcome with disappointment and feebly returns to her home.

Tannhäuser now appears, in a wretched plight, on his way to re-enter the Hill of Venus. He tells Wolfram that he appealed to the Pope for pardon, but was told that his redemption was as impossible as that the Pope's staff should put forth leaves. Wolfram's remonstrances are in vain, and Tannhäuser is about to invoke the goddess, when a chant is heard and the Pilgrims appear, announcing that the Pope's staff had blossomed as a sign that the sinner was forgiven. Tannhäuser kneels in prayer as the mourners pass with the body of Elizabeth, who, overcome by her bitter disappointment, had suddenly passed away.

Tannhäuser begins and ends with the Chorus of Pilgrims, which appears also in the third act. During the opera it is penitential in spirit, but it becomes at the close a magnificent triumph-chant.

TRAVIATA, LA (Trah-veeah'-tah) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted.

Opera in three acts; libretto by Piave, founded on Dumas' Lady of the Camelias; music by Verdi. First presented Venice, 1853; London, 1856; New York, 1856.

Traviata is one of the most beautiful works of its class, and is full of lovely melodies; while the story of the unfortunate Violetta has caused many tears to be shed by sympathetic listeners. The plot, being quite familiar, will be but briefly sketched here. Violetta, a courtesan of Paris, is holding a brilliant revel in her home. Among the guests is a young man from Provence, Alfred, who is in love with Violetta, and after much persuasion, the spoiled beauty agrees to leave her gay life and retire with him to an humble apartment near Paris. After a few brief months of happiness the lovers are discovered by Alfred's father, who pleads with Violetta to release his son from his promises. She yields for his sake, and resumes her former life in Paris. Alfred, not knowing the real cause of her desertion, seeks her out and publicly insults her. Too late he discovers the sacrifice Violetta has made, and when he returns, full of remorse, he finds her dying.

TRISTAN UND ISOLDE (Munich, 1865) (Wagner)

(NOTE.—See "Victrola Book of the Opera" for complete description)

Opera in three acts; words and music by Richard Wagner, the plot being derived from an old Celtic legend which was popular during the Middle Ages. His direct source was the unfinished poem by Gottfried of Strasburg, who flourished in the thirteenth century. Tristan is one of the most popular of legendary heroes and has been treated of by numerous writers, among them Tennyson and Swinburne.

This great drama of love and hatred, with its wonderful music, is now quite generally admitted to be the finest of the master's operas. Written at the time of Wagner's own love affair (with Mathilde Wesendonck), it is supposed that he sought to emphasize the fact that love cannot always be bound by conventions.

TROVATORE (Troh-vah-tohr'-eh) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted.

Opera in four acts; words by Cammanaro, the story being suggested by a Spanish drama of the same name; music by Verdi. First produced at Rome, 1853; Paris, 1854; London, 1855; New York, 1855. The scene is laid in Biscay and Arragon in the fifteenth century.

Many years previous to the opening of the story the mother of Azucena, an old gypsy, had been burned as a witch by the father of the present Count di Luna, and Azucena, to revenge her mother's death, stole the young brother of the Count and brought him up as her son under the name of Manrico. He becomes a Troubadour and gains the love of Leonora, who is also beloved by the Count.

In Act I the rival suitors, in an effort to see Leonora, meet and a duel takes place, but Manrico generously spares the Count's life. Act II opens in the gypsy camp, where Manrico, under the care of Azucena, is recovering from a recent wound. He learns that Leonora, thinking him dead, is about to take the veil, and that the Count intends to abduct her. He hastens to her and after an encounter in the Convent, Leonora is rescued. In the third act the lovers are finally about to be united, but Manrico suddenly learns that Azucena is in the power of the Count and condemned to be burned, and in his attempt to release her he is also captured by di Luna. In the last act Leonora, to save Manrico, offers to wed the Count, but takes poison as soon as the order of release is signed. Discovering this, the Count orders Manrico to instant execution, but just as the Troubadour dies the gypsy, Azucena, reveals to di Luna that he has killed his own brother.

TURNER, ALAN, Baritone

Mr. Turner has become a great favorite with Victor customers through the fine series of standard songs and opera airs he has made for us. This baritone's range is a remarkable one, his upper notes being particularly pure and clear.

The selections which this singer has made—Irish ballads, English patriotic airs, sacred songs and opera songs in English—are all rendered with dignity and artistic finish. Mr. Turner was a member of the Chicago Opera Company during a recent season.

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE SINGERS

We take pleasure in presenting these examples of Negro Folk Songs by the Tuskegee Institute Singers—from the famous school of the late Dr. Booker T. Washington, Tuskegee, Ala.—who sing these inherited old "Spirituals," as did their grandfathers, in deep reverential spirit, with all the native, peculiar richness of tone-coloring and harmonies that make these songs of real use in an educational and historical sense. There are no more beautiful examples of genuine folk songs anywhere in the world than those which have grown up in the peculiar conditions of the development of singing among our American negroes. The roots of melody and rhythm and the weird harmonies were brought no doubt from Africa, but the application to the needs of expression in religious fervor, unity of effort in labor, in the cotton field or on the levee, are wholly American. Another curious fact is that while the early music of the Egyptians, Orientals, Greeks, Indians and practically all primitive peoples is almost invariably in one part, yet set any three or four negroes singing at any time or place and you will instantly hear an accompanying harmony in one or more of the voices.

U. S. MARINE BAND, of Washington, D. C.

The history of the United States Marine Band is a most interesting one and dates from 1801. Before that time the country had no band in its navy, but then the spirit of pride, which would not passively sanction Uncle Sam's being outdone in the matter of naval equipment by any European or other power, began to manifest itself. It was not until 1838, however, that this little band was detailed to the U. S. Marine Corps for duty at Washington. The band was then conducted by a fife major, and so continued until 1854, when a bill was passed providing for one leader and thirty classed musicians, and this number was increased to sixty. The Marine Band has been an indispensable factor in the music life of Washington and is familiarly known as the "President's Own." The band is under the direction of Lieut. Wm. H. Santelmann, a famous bandmaster and composer.

VAN AND SCHENCK

The piano to many people is a serious instrument, to be approached only in the proper spirit of reverence. To Van and Schenck a piano is a pal who enters gladly into their fun making.

Van and Schenck, though both are still quite young, have been "vaudeville headliners" for a considerable time, and during a recent season they were much in demand in New York, where they appeared with "The Century Girl," and also at the Cocoanut Grove. A number of their most successful contributions are listed below, including a popular Irish song written by Van and Schenck themselves, and the catchy "Yaddie Kaddie."

VERDI, FORTUNIO GIUSEPPE FRANCESCO (Vair'-dee)

VERDI

Born 1813, near Roncole, Italy. Parents, though poor inn-keepers, gave him spinet lessons from parish organist. At 10 succeeded his teacher at church organ. Boy became so popular that village sent him to Milan for further study, where director of Conservatory refused scholarship because of lack of talent! (Many years after, this same institution was renamed Cons. di Giuseppi Verdi in Verdi's honor.) Then studied with Lavigna, returning to Roncole to marry Sirta Barezzi. Settled permanently in Milan 1836. Among works were Nabucco, 1842; Lombardi, 1843; Ernani, 1844; Rigoletto, 1851; Trovatore and Traviata, 1853; Masked Ball, 1859; Forza del Destino, 1862; Don Carlos, 1867; Aïda, 1871; Requiem, 1875; Otello, 1887; Falstaff, 1893. Died in 1901.

VESSELLA'S ITALIAN BAND (Ves-sel'-lah)

VESSELLA

This famous band has filled many engagements, some of the most important of them in large resort cities, at Atlantic City, at Brighton Beach, and elsewhere. As a conductor, Signor Vessella is vigorous and picturesque, and his control over the band is remarkable—fine precision and delicate shading being two of the things most commending themselves to the attention of music lovers. The band has made many Victor records, covering a large range of music, from the symphony to the dance.

VICTOR OPERA COMPANY

The series of Victor operatic medleys is the most popular, the most costly and the most widely distributed feature ever introduced by the Victor. These medleys have, of course, been extensively imitated, but the fine organization which the Victor controls and the Victor process of recording make the records absolutely beyond competition.

Nearly fifty operettas and grand operas have been treated in this novel fashion, and the skill used in combining the most attractive bits of these musical works is most remarkable.

VIENNA QUARTET, THE

(Two violins, piano, 'cello)

The Vienna Quartet records are always warmly greeted by lovers of good music. The playing of the Quartet is a fine example of the spirit and finish that can be put into popular music and the lighter classics when properly played.

Many notable composers and critics have heard and admired the work of this organization, and have expressed their pleasure in no uncertain manner. The constant association of the players during many years has given them a perfection of ensemble which is most delightful.

WAGNER

Born Leipsic, 1813, son of city official. Father died, mother married Geyer, actor, when Wagner was 6. Family moved to Dresden, boy studied piano. Profoundly affected hearing Weber's Freischütz. Composed string quartets, overture, a symphony. Began opera The Wedding 1832, unfinished. Directed Magdeburg Opera 1834. Married Mina Planer, actress. (Separated 1862, marrying divorced wife of Hans Von Bülow.) Conductor Riga, Russia, 1837, began Rienzi. Failed. Went England in small vessel, conceiving idea Tristan and Flying Dutchman during storms. Failed London, lived poor, obscure in Paris. Wrote dance music. Rienzi produced Dresden 1842 through Meyerbeer. Flying Dutchman followed. Tannhäuser 1845. Fled to Switzerland in revolution 1849. Began Niebelungen Ring. Returned Germany 1861. Tristan dropped as "unsingable" after 57 rehearsals, Vienna. Helped by King Ludwig of Bavaria. Built Festival Theatre, Bayreuth 1876. Last opera, Parsifal, produced there 1882. Went to Italy for health, died there 1883.

WALKER, ESTHER, Comedienne

WALKER

Esther Walker went on one night as a "pinch hitter" at a Winter Garden show in New York and brought down the house. She began by singing at Sunday school socials in Pee Wee Valley, Kentucky, because there wasn't anybody else there who could entertain. She studied stenography and went to Chicago for fifteen dollars a week. A friend who was singing in cabaret shows was making thirty-five, and it occurred to Miss Walker that if she could entertain in Pee Wee Valley she might have chances elsewhere. At twenty-one she was pretty near the top of her profession.

WELLS, JOHN BARNES, Tenor

WELLS

Mr. Wells, who is a native of Pennsylvania, first became known as a singer while at Syracuse University, where he took a prominent part in the musical life of the college. On his graduation he was secured by the Brick Presbyterian Church of East Orange, always noted for its fine choir. New York soon discovered Mr. Wells, and he was promptly captured by the Madison Avenue M. E. Church, when his concert career may be said to have begun.

The audiences who hear this singer are always in complete sympathy with him, not only because of his lovely voice and the charm of his singing, but because of the clearness of his enunciation, which enables every word to be heard, and these unusual qualities are fully apparent in the numbers he has sung for the Victor.

WHEELER, ELIZABETH, Soprano

A soprano who can give a song the proper expression and yet pronounce the words distinctly is a rare discovery. In Mrs. Wheeler the Victor presents a soprano whose diction is really remarkable; and this fact is quite evident in the records she has made.

After hearing Mrs. Wheeler's first records, the Victor Company at once secured her services for disc work; and she has sung a number of old favorites, besides several of the popular ballads and many duets, both sacred and secular, with Mr. Wheeler, the soprano and tenor blending in most attractive style.

WHITE, FRANCES

Frances White has humor of the rarest kind, based on keen intuitive gift for character. She invariably has good songs to sing, yet it is more through her personality than through words or music that the humor appeals, and that personality comes out of the records just as surely as over the footlights.

WHITEMAN'S AMBASSADOR ORCHESTRA

This organization is now one of the most famous dance orchestras in the world. Its records of dance music have introduced a new element into the American dance. Everything it does is characterized by marvelous precision of time, by skilful scoring, and by the equally skilful use of sustained harmony in instruments not occupied with the dance rhythm.

WILLS, NAT M., Comedian

No entertainer on the American stage was more popular with the public than Nat Wills. His familiar impersonation of a tramp was unique and always amusing, without a touch of offensiveness or vulgarity. His stories and monologues were so witty and laugh-compelling that one suspects they were written, like his parodies, by himself—and he never failed to make the most of them.

Mr. Wills may be said to have had a voice created for record-making, so powerful and resonant was his rich baritone; and the distinctness with which he gave every syllable of his talks and songs added to his popularity. The untimely death of this genial comedian is mourned by a host of friends and admirers.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPH RECORDS

A system of Victor records by means of which instruction in wireless may be obtained at home, originated in conjunction with the Marconi Institute of New York.

The course consists of six ten-inch double-face Victor records with a booklet of instruction, packed in a special case, and in the opinion of the Marconi Institute the instruction provided is so complete that with a reasonable amount of practice the student should become an efficient operator in a comparatively few weeks.

JOSEF A. PASTERNACK

Musical Director

STILL a young man, the musical director of the Victor Talking Machine Company is a musician of wide experience and broad sympathies. Born in Poland of a family rich in musical traditions, Pasternack began the study of music as a child of four, finishing his period of instruction at the Warsaw Conservatory. Coming to the United States soon after, he became principal viola with the Metropolitan Opera House Orchestra, which position he held with distinction for eleven years. Then on the recommendation of Toscanini he was appointed conductor. After three years' experience in that capacity he went abroad and won new laurels in a number of European cities. A year later he was recalled to this country to conduct the "Century Opera." After filling an engagement as conductor of the Boston Symphony operatic concerts with unprecedented success he became, in 1916, Musical Director for the Victor Talking Machine Company, in which capacity the benefit of his musical genius has been enjoyed by infinitely greater audiences.

ALDA

Frances Alda's amazing versatility is one of the most conspicuous of the many gifts bestowed upon her by Nature in a prodigal mood. A mere list of the operas in which she has sustained leading soprano rôles would fill a paragraph. Since making her début in "Rigoletto" at the Paris Opera Comique in 1904, she has sung a great number of exacting rôles. As the wife of Giulio Gatti-Casazza, general manager and impresario of the Metropolitan Opera, she has long taken a prominent place as a factor in American musical affairs, and her vocal gifts have won her countless friends both at the opera and on the concert platform. Perhaps the fact that she was born in Christchurch, New Zealand, has given her a special sympathy with American musical aspirations. Her voice is singularly fresh and sweet, though capable of remarkable color-shading. A certain intensity of temperament gives a thrilling quality to some of her records that fairly grips the imagination of all who hear her.

AMATO

AMATO, PASQUALE, Baritone (Ah-mah'-toh)

Pasquale Amato was born in Naples, and was not originally destined for a musical career. After his voice developed under the teaching of famous masters, however, it became evident that he was destined for operatic success. One of the most gifted baritones of the day, he has achieved success not only in Italy, but also in London and other European music centres, as well as South America. He made his début with the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, 1908, in "Traviata," and has since sustained many rôles at the leading American opera house.

BATTISTINI

BATTISTINI, MATTIA, Baritone

Battistini is one of the few great artists whom American impresarios have not succeeded in luring away from Europe. It is said that his dread of the ocean voyage alone has caused him to refuse brilliant offers from New York. In Russia, where he sang regularly for more than twenty years, in Spain and in his native Italy, he is highly regarded because of the sheer beauty of his voice, his warm, true Italian style, and the dramatic force of his acting.

It is with pleasure that we are able to offer four splendid solos by this singer, besides a selection from "Ernani" made with the assistance of artists and chorus of La Scala, Milan, and also a duet from "Thaïs."

BESANZONI, GABRIELLA

BESANZONI

Gabriella Besanzoni is one of the great mezzo-contraltos of the younger generation. She is by birth a Roman, and it was in the Imperial City that she first made her operatic début at the Costanzi Theatre. Her fame spread rapidly as she appeared at one Italian opera house after another, including La Scala at Milan. She appeared then with high honors at the Reale of Madrid and the Liceo of Barcelona. Her Santuzza in Italy was a triumph, as was her Carmen in Spain, where, as a rule, this opera had formerly been received with coldness. South American and Mexican engagements led to her coming to the United States, where she was instantly engaged to sing with the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Signorina Besanzoni's voice is remarkable for its range and beauty. She has mastered rôles as unlike as Amneris in "Aïda," and Norma in the opera of the same name. She has made a number of Victor records, some of them of almost unsurpassable beauty, the lower tones of her contralto range exhibiting a grandeur not often vouchsafed to singers. She has been engaged for a number of important rôles with the Chicago Opera Company.

BORI

Lucrezia Bori's real name is Lucrezia Borgia (or Borja, in Spanish), but she prefers to be known as Bori. Though of Italian descent, she is a native of Valencia, Spain. Permitted to follow her obvious destiny as a singer, she went to Milan for study, and eventually made her début in Rome as Micaela in "Carmen." Her first season was very successful, and she followed it up with success in South America. After another European season she was engaged for the Metropolitan Opera Company in New York. The memory of her success at our leading opera house is still fresh in the minds of music-lovers, and she needs little further introduction. She is one of the youngest singers ever heard in opera in this country, and her youth and beauty, together with her lovely voice and dramatic ability, make her unique. The singer's numerous records well display the beauty of her voice and the charm of her personality.

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Boston Symphony Orchestra was founded by Henry L. Higginson, a music-lover who is also a master-builder in business, in 1881. Under his careful guidance, the Orchestra has grown to be self-supporting. A pension fund has also been established, so that its members can devote themselves to their art without the economic uncertainty which so often plays havoc with artistic organizations. Under these circumstances, the Boston Symphony Orchestra has achieved an enviable position among the world's best symphony orchestras. It is made up of superb artists who have played together for years under the guidance of conductors of genius, who have individually controlled its musical destinies over long periods. Despite the reputation of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, comparatively few have heard it, for we do not all live in Boston, and symphony orchestras travel with difficulty. Yet through the agency of the Victrola the Boston Symphony Orchestra can now play in everybody's home. Largely through its instrumentality it is no longer necessary to travel to one of the great cities in order to hear examples of modern symphonic music.

BRASLAU, SOPHIE, Contralto (Brass'-low)

BRASLAU

Sophie Braslau was one of the youngest American singers ever engaged by the Metropolitan Opera Company. This artist was born in New York, and is the only child of Dr. Abel Braslau, a distinguished Russian physician. By the time she was seventeen she spoke four languages, and since then has added Russian to her accomplishments. Naturally, she also sings in these tongues, and it is her special delight to sing all arias and songs in the languages of their composers. The range of Miss Braslau's programs is remarkable. She sings the classic lieder with a rarely sympathetic intelligence as well as the beautiful old songs of France and the lovely old airs of Italy; she sings the modern songs of France, and the best songs by American and English composers. In opera she has studied every school and is at home in all branches of this fascinating art.

CALVÉ, EMMA, Soprano (Kahl-vay')

CALVÉ

Half French, half Spanish by descent, Emma Calvé possesses warmth of temperament and dramatic instinct unique even among artists. She was born in Madrid, of well-to-do parents, but the early death of her father forced her to make a career for herself. She went to Paris and studied. Her operatic début was made at Nice, but her first important appearance was made at the Théâtre de la Monnaie, in Brussels, in 1882, as Marguerite in "Faust." Following this came her Paris début at the Opéra Comique, but her first real triumphs came in Italy, where she made several tours. When she reappeared in Paris, her performance of the rôles of Santuzza in "Cavalleria Rusticana" and Carmen fairly took the city by storm. She appeared in London in 1892, and at the Metropolitan, New York, two years later. Here as elsewhere her success was overwhelming, especially in "Carmen" and her name is perhaps more closely identified with this than with any other work.

CARUSO, ENRICO, Tenor (Kah-roo'-zoh)

CARUSO

Caruso is the greatest living operatic tenor, one of the outstanding artists of his generation. His American engagements have been a continuous ovation, the great audiences being held spellbound by the exquisite refinement, beauty and power of his voice. He is a native of Naples and was born in 1873. When he was a mere boy he sang in the churches of Naples, and the beauty of his voice arrested the attention of all who heard it.

Caruso was eighteen years old when he met a distinguished baritone, who, after hearing his voice, decided that he would give the young singer substantial assistance. He therefore took him to Maestro Vergine, who was captivated by the beauty and purity of his voice, and began to give him vocal instruction.

The singer made his début in 1894 in Naples, in a now forgotten opera, "L'amico Francesco," afterward singing in various Italian cities and in Cairo. A South American engagement followed, and on his return, after a season in Milan, it was clear that here was one of the most promising young tenors ever heard in Italy. Caruso had made a success in various countries of Europe before coming to America in 1903, but it was his performance of the Duke at the Metropolitan on November 23d of that year which convinced opera-goers that the greatest of all tenors had arrived. He recently celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his operatic début and was accorded special honors by his colleagues at the Metropolitan.

This great artist has made records for the Victor since 1903, and the present contract with the tenor does not expire until 1934.

CLEMENT, EDMOND, Tenor [Klay-mon(g)]

CLEMENT

This favorite French artist, who has for many years been the leading tenor at the Paris Opéra Comique, was born in Paris. He was destined for a civil engineer, and graduated from the Polytechnic; but his love for music compelled him to enter the Conservatoire, where he was one of the most brilliant pupils of his class. He was soon placed on the staff of the Opéra Comique, where he remained continuously until brought over by the Metropolitan in 1909; and during his stay in America duplicated his French success.

In the records which M. Clement has made for the Victrola his beautifully schooled voice, graceful style and perfect diction are shown to perfection.

CORTOT, ALFRED, Pianist (Cor-toh')

CORTOT

Born in Switzerland, of French parents, Alfred Cortot went to Paris to study. After graduating with high honors he toured Europe with great success, earning himself a place among the foremost pianists of the day. Not content with this, however, he won great distinction as a conductor, and founded the Parisian Société de Concerts, and directed the Concerts Populaires in Lille. When only thirty years old he became a professor at the Conservatoire, succeeding Marmontel and Pugno—two of the greatest of French pianists. During the war Cortot was on the staff of General Galieni, defender of Paris, having charge of concerts in hospitals, training camps, etc., and devoting special care to the "reconstruction" of wounded soldiers. For his services he has been made a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, and was selected as the soloist for the semi-official visit to the United States, with Messager and the Conservatoire Orchestra. He has made the following beautiful records for the Victor.

CULP, JULIA, Contralto

CULP

Julia Culp's success in America has placed her among the foremost singers in this country, and it is a rare privilege to number her among the artists who make records for the Victor. She was born in Holland, and received her first training at the Amsterdam Conservatory. Later she studied with Etelka Gerster, after which she made a most successful début. Following this she toured extensively, singing with the greatest success in Austria-Hungary, Russia, England, France, Belgium, Holland, Spain and Scandinavia, in addition to the United States. Invariably her singing won the highest praise, and she is today among the foremost artists singing in America. She has the gift of languages, and finds no difficulty with the English tongue. Of her vocal powers a well-known American critic has said, "She is indeed unmatched as a singer of songs in our generation."

DALMORES, CHARLES, Tenor (Dahl-moh-ress')

DALMORES

Mr. Dalmores has made a splendid success in America, and has proven one of the best French tenors heard in many years.

Charles Dalmores was born at Nancy, France, in 1872, and made his début at Rouen in 1899 with such success that he was engaged for the Brussels Opera, and his Brussels triumphs were repeated at Covent Garden, where he sang with Calvé in "Carmen," and with Melba in "Faust." He was brought to the U. S. in 1906 by Oscar Hammerstein, and his successes at the Manhattan in Don José, Hoffmann and other rôles are well remembered.

DE GOGORZA, EMILIO, Baritone (deh Goh-gor'-thah or Goh-gor'-zah)

DE GOGORZA

If you will glance down the list of records made by this brilliant baritone, you will observe that language evidently presents no barrier. If you go a step further and listen to the records, you will further note that whatever the language, the artist enters into the spirit of the nation whose songs he interprets. Mr. De Gogorza was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., of Spanish parents who were passing through America. He left America at the age of two months and went to Spain where his parents resided for some time. The first languages that he spoke were French and Spanish. He subsequently was sent to England at the age of eleven to learn the language. Later he went to École "Monge" in Paris, coming to America in his twentieth year. He obtained American citizenship after residing several years in this country, as he had been registered at his birth at the Spanish consulate as a Spanish subject. There is Anglo-Saxon strength and virility, Spanish passion and abandon, Italian subtlety and latent fire, French nicety of detail in all his work. Above all, there is the perfect freedom of vocal technique which belongs to no country in particular but to the cosmopolitan realms of consummate art.

DE LUCA, GIUSEPPE, Baritone

DE LUCA

Giuseppe de Luca is one of the most distinguished members of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and no artist has more successfully proven his right to a place of distinction than this young Italian baritone.

A Roman by birth, at the age of thirteen his talent for singing was brought to the attention of Bartolini, the famous baritone and teacher. The boy then showed indications of musical feeling in marked degree, and his voice at that time was of the distinctly baritone quality. Fearing a possible change in the voice, it was not until some two years later that de Luca entered the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia in Rome, where he studied for five years before making his début in "Faust." He spent eight winter seasons in the famous La Scala and has appeared with most significant success in all the considerable capitals of Europe.

Mr. de Luca's American début was made as Figaro in the "Barber of Seville" at the Metropolitan Opera House, November 25, 1915, when he won instant favor with press and public alike. The Victor, after hearing this fine artist, promptly secured his record services, and he has made a number of solos which are fine examples of his artistic achievements.

DE PACHMANN, VLADIMIR, Pianist (deh Pahk'-man)

DE PACHMANN

M. de Pachmann has been frequently heard in America, but his last tour was the most successful of all, his remarkable playing of the Chopin works being greeted with the greatest enthusiasm.

The reproductions which the Victor has made of this artist's playing show in a marvelously faithful manner his beautiful tone and exquisite delicacy of touch. These include five exquisite Chopin compositions; Mendelssohn and Schumann numbers; and that celebrated encore piece, the "Rigoletto" transcription.

M. De Pachmann is known as one of the great tonalists of the piano, and the Victor records were made at the height of his extraordinary powers.

DESTINN, EMMY, Soprano

DESTINN

Emmy Destinn was born at Prague, Bohemia, 1878, and began her musical career as a violinist. Discovering that nature had endowed her with an exceptional voice—to say nothing of an exceptional dramatic instinct—she wisely gave up the violin. From the first she was successful, and after brilliant continental successes as an opera singer, she was heard in London and subsequently in New York with the Metropolitan. Quickly she established herself as among the first favorites of the great artists of that illustrious company. Rarely has so beautiful a voice been united to so intense a dramatic instinct, and there is a genuine "thrill" in any dramatic number that she sings. She made her début as Santuzza in "Cavalleria Rusticana," and then was chosen by Cosima Wagner to sing Senta in "The Flying Dutchman"; she was selected by Richard Strauss for the first performances of "Salome"; she appeared in London in "Madama Butterfly," then came to America and sang in "Don Giovanni" and in "Aida"—surely a record for versatility to make any singer proud. She once wrote the libretto for an entire opera.

EAMES

Emma Eames was born in Shanghai, China, of American parents, her father being a lawyer of the International Courts. The family soon returned to their American home in Bath, Maine, where the young Emma began the study of music—at first with her mother but finally going to Paris, where she spent several years with Mme. Marchesi in arduous study of voice culture, dramatic action and the French language.

Mme. Eames made her way to the front by sheer talent and hard study. A pure fresh voice, flexible and expressive, remarkably good intonation, an attractive personality, and an unbounded enthusiasm for her work were the qualities which contributed to her rapid advancement. She has, during her career, created a number of important rôles, and has sustained the best operatic traditions in many others in what may be classed as the standard repertoire. Like so many others among the truly great artists of our time Mme. Eames chose the Victor as the means of perpetuating her art.

ELMAN, MISCHA, Violinist

ELMAN

Though he has lived for some years in America, and has come to be regarded as one of our own, Mischa Elman was born in South Russia, and owed his musical education to the accident that the great teacher, Leopold Auer, while on tour, heard him play. Owing to racial difficulties, a special permit from the Czar had to be obtained to get Elman and his family out of Moscow and into Petrograd. Once there, however, he made astonishing progress. Overwhelming success in the Russian capital was followed by equally astounding results in London and eventually in Russia. Among violinists the "Elman tone" is spoken of almost with bated breath, as of a thing apart from ordinary experience. It has a fullness of volume, a sensuous richness of quality that make it unique, and it is used with extraordinary nicety of technique and a musicianly understanding. Mischa Elman has interested himself in chamber music, and the records of the Elman String Quartet are an interesting feature in our recent catalogues.

The list of Elman records is a long one. It is particularly rich in those compositions which belong in the standard concert repertoire of great violinists, and which never lose interest for music-lovers from generation to generation. There is not one which concert-goers do not know and love, and not one of which music-lovers are likely to tire.

FAMOUS ARTISTS OF EUROPE

The following records were made abroad by celebrated singers of important European music centers. Maria Galvany was born at Granada, Spain, and after making her début as a coloratura soprano in opera at Madrid was accorded enthusiastic welcome in leading European opera houses. Sagi-Barba, also a Spaniard by birth, has achieved great distinction as an operatic baritone. Maurice Renaud, the French baritone, made a brilliant reputation in America in the days of Hammerstein's operatic ventures.

FARRAR, GERALDINE, Soprano (Fah-rahr')

FARRAR

Few artists are so dear to the heart of the American public as Geraldine Farrar. Her wonderful voice, her histrionic gifts, her personal beauty, count for much, but above all her courage, her spirit and enterprise, are peculiarly appealing to the American point of view. She was born in Melrose, Mass., and began her musical studies at the age of twelve, under Miss Long, of Boston. Later she studied with Emma Thursby in New York, at the same time learning dramatic action from Capoul. In 1899 she went to Paris to study with Trabadello, but being desirous of achieving the highest development wisely went to Mme. Lilli Lehmann. Operatic successes in Europe of the most brilliant kind made her engagement by the Metropolitan inevitable. Among American music-lovers, especially opera-goers, the name of Geraldine Farrar has become a household word. The number of rôles she has successfully created is astonishing, and to every one she has brought the same care, the same intelligence, the same superb artistry. More especially, perhaps, we think of her as Tosca, as Carmen, Marguerite, or Madama Butterfly, but to these may be added Mimi (an unforgetable achievement), Zerlina, Juliet, Cherubino, Gilda, Violetta, Nedda and many others. Nor can we omit reference to the charm with which she sings the old American and other folk songs, and established favorites of the concert room.

FLONZALEY QUARTET (Flon-zah'-lee)

The engagement of the Flonzaley Quartet has opened up new and fascinating fields of possibilities for the Victor. The world's greatest composers have lavished their greatest genius upon the production of chamber music—especially the string quartet, two violins, viola, and 'cello—yet owing to its delicacy, and the rarity with which a true ensemble is obtained, this music is perhaps the least known of any. The Flonzaley Quartet is an organization devoted exclusively to playing this music. It was formed in 1903 by E. J. De Coppet, an American music lover, and named after his Swiss Villa on Lake Geneva. The Quartet, however, has long maintained an independent existence, and is famous in American musical circles for its devotion to its artistic ideals, and the perfection of its achievements. The players who form the Quartet are Adolfo Betti, first violin; Alfred Pochon, second; Louis Bailly viola; and Iwan d'Archambeau, 'cello. The Quartet binds its members not to play in orchestra or even solo, so as to preserve the perfect unity of effect for which it is famous. Since the death of Mr. De Coppet in 1916, his place as patron has been taken by his son Mr. Andre De Coppet. These and their future records will be appreciated by all who are discriminating in their musical tastes, as the result of most careful and painstaking effort.

GADSKI, JOHANNA, Soprano (Gahds'-kee)

Johanna Gadski was born in the Province of Pomerania. She received her musical education young, making her début at quite an early age, with artistic success, as Undine in Lortzing's opera of that name. Her success was immediate and has grown greater with each succeeding year. From 1889 to 1893 she sang during the summers at Kroll's and filled winter engagements in Mayence, Stettin, Bremen and Berlin. From 1895 to 1898 she appeared in America under Walter Damrosch's direction, and was subsequently engaged by Grau and, in the season of 1903-04, by Conried. She has sung frequently at Covent Garden, London, and has made extensive tours of America. Her repertoire embraces some sixty dramatic and "youthful-dramatic" rôles in German, French and Italian. Her long association with the Metropolitan is gratefully remembered.

GALLI-CURCI, AMELITA, Soprano (Gal-lee Koor'-chee)

GALLI-CURCI

Fresh from triumphs in Madrid and in South America, where she sang with Caruso and Ruffo, Galli-Curci nevertheless came to the United States unheralded. Her début with the Chicago Opera Company in November, 1916, however, was such a triumph as has rarely been experienced in recent times. As soon as her operatic engagements permitted she visited other important music centres in America, where similar fortune awaited her. Not until January, 1918, did she make her formal début in opera in New York. Her singing at once created the wildest enthusiasm, and her conquest of the United States was complete. Galli-Curci is an Italian by birth and training, but is something of a cosmopolitan by nature. Her voice is one that haunts the memory: wonderfully pure in quality, amazingly flexible, and of even quality throughout its entire wide compass. In addition, her musical training has given her an unusually broad musicianship, for she is an accomplished pianist as well as a coloratura soprano versed in the highest traditions of the bel canto school. With all these talents she possesses also a winning personality, an old-world grace, an elusive femininity, that combine to make her altogether exceptional. The Victor Company was quick to recognize her genius, and the first of the records which she makes for this Company were made even prior to her Chicago début.

GARRISON, MABEL, Soprano

GARRISON

One of the most important Victor engagements of recent years was that of this gifted soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Miss Garrison is a native of Baltimore, and received her early musical training in the Peabody Institute. Like many another singer, she first attracted attention while a member of a church choir, but her remarkable musicianship and the exquisite brilliancy and color of her voice soon brought her success on the concert platform, and subsequently with the Metropolitan forces. The past few seasons have been a succession of triumphs for this talented singer.

Miss Garrison peculiarly excels in those compositions which are within the executive power of a very few singers. Vocal works calling for the utmost exactitude in execution are her particular forte. But she can take a popular song, when she chooses, and with it bring wonder into the souls of those who know music only in its popular forms.

Her voice is of flutelike purity, and her singing exhibits the skill and delicacy of the finished artist, which Miss Garrison assuredly is. The records she has made display the youthful freshness of her voice, and her coloratura work is little short of marvelous.

GERVILLE-RÉACHE, JEANNE, Contralto

(Zher'-veel Ray-ahsh')

GERVILLE RÉACHE

This accomplished French contralto, who made such a success in America, was a native of the Basque country in southwest France. Her mother was Spanish, while her father was French, being long a Colonial Governor of Guadaloupe. Even when a child her voice was phenomenal for its unusual quality; and when Mme. Calvé heard it she advised that it be trained for an operatic career. To the great Criticos of Paris is due the credit for the development of this wonderful voice, remarkable for its wide range and exquisite quality—attributes which are strikingly shown in the beautiful record of the "Song of Spring," from "Samson et Dalila," which Mme. Gerville-Réache made for the Victor, before her untimely death removed her from our midst.

GILIBERT

Although the worth of this artist was well known to New Yorkers, he had won new triumphs during his last seasons at the Manhattan and Metropolitan, his work being highly praised. M. Gilibert, a short time before his death gave the Victor two delightful French songs, delivering them with the artistic finish and good enunciation for which he was noted. His singing of the Handel Largo affords a noteworthy example of the sincerity which was his.

GLUCK, ALMA, Soprano (Glook)

GLUCK

Although born in Bucharest, Roumania, Mme. Gluck is essentially American, as she came to this country at the age of six, and most of her musical education was received here. The public knew very little of this fine artist until one morning, several years ago, when, after making her first appearance as Sophie in "Werther" at the New Theatre, she awoke to find herself famous. After several seasons at the Metropolitan, Alma Gluck entered the concert field, in which she has made a phenomenal success. There are few singers today who can turn so readily from the heavier operatic arias to the simple songs which find an echo in every heart, and it would be difficult to say in which province this brilliant artist is best appreciated. Her concert seasons have been among the most successful ever enjoyed by any singer and it will be a source of great satisfaction to Victrola owners to know that Mme. Gluck has agreed to make records for the Victor until December, 1925.

HAMLIN, GEORGE, Tenor

To George Hamlin belongs the unique distinction of having gained a leading position in each of the three branches of the singer's art. He first won a nation-wide celebrity as an oratorio tenor of the first rank, and has appeared for many seasons with all the leading choral organizations of America and many abroad. Over one hundred oratorios and cantatas are included in his repertoire. In the season of 1911-1912 Mr. Hamlin was engaged to sing the leading tenor part in Herbert's opera, "Natoma," with the Chicago-Philadelphia Grand Opera Company. The genuine success in his first rôle led to Mr. Hamlin's re-engagement with the company for the following two seasons.

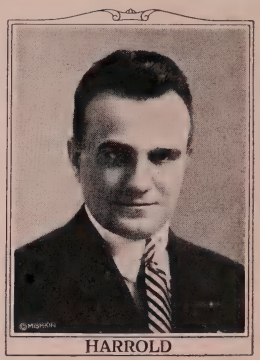
HARROLD, ORVILLE, Tenor



HARROLD

Orville Harrold is an American, a native of Indiana. He was "raised" on a farm,—and somewhere during the process it was discovered he could sing. He soon became soloist in boy choirs throughout the Middle West. He learned the violin, studied harmony, and, when he was twenty-five years old, began his real career, as a tenor. He sang for various musical organizations, chiefly throughout his own Middle Western country, then came to New York, where he was at once engaged by the Shubert theatrical forces. After a season or two the late Oscar Hammerstein insisted that he should drop everything and study for grand opera. Three months were enough, when he made his début as Canio in "Pagliacci" with the Metropolitan forces. Next year he started again in comic opera, giving himself no rest. He then went to London with the Hammerstein forces for two seasons, returning to the United States to plunge, still without rest, into concert work. The Century Opera Company, the vaudeville stage and the Hippodrome held him for a while, until he at last was forced to give up and take the sorely-needed vacation. After this he returned once more to the Metropolitan forces, and the remainder is history.

HEIFETZ, JASCHA, Violinist (High'-fetz)

HEIFETZ

To few it is given while still on the threshold of life to achieve the success which comes ordinarily—if it comes at all—only after maturity and experience. Yet that is what Jascha Heifetz has accomplished. He began playing the violin at three, completed the course at the Royal Music School in Vilna, Poland, at the age of seven, and, after study with Professor Leopold Auer in Petrograd, was a mature artist at the age of ten. His tour through Russia was a triumph; the keenest critics of Europe had nothing but praise for him. And now after a leisurely trip from Russia to the United States, by way of Vladivostock and California, he has conquered America. Hardly at maturity, he ranks with the greatest violinists of the day. Though his years can be counted, the measure of his genius knows no bounds. His technique is flawless; the intonation is perfect, the quality of tone superb and utterly individual, complete mastery over bow and violin having been vouchsafed him in childhood by a beneficent Nature for once bent upon creating a perfect model. Over and above all that is the ageless insight of genius which makes his interpretations seem like mystic patterns woven with a thread of iridescent flame.

HEMPEL, FRIEDA, Soprano

HEMPEL

Mme. Hempel is a native of Leipsic, and as a child showed such musical talent that she was sent to the Leipsic Conservatory, where her unusual voice and great ambition caused her to make rapid progress. In 1906 she sang at Bayreuth as one of the Rhine maidens and in 1907 made a few appearances in London, but her formal début was in the autumn of 1907 at the Royal Opera House in Berlin.

Mme. Hempel's success was immediate, Berlin operagoers being delighted at the novelty of a colorature singer who possessed not only a lovely voice but youth and beauty as well. She was ambitious and industrious and she steadily widened her repertoire until it included the coloratura parts in the old Italian operas and in Mozart's lighter pieces.

The Victor promptly followed Mme. Hempel's American appearance with several fine records of her voice. (For quartet numbers in which Hempel sings, see "Caruso.")

HERBERT, VICTOR

HERBERT

This famous director was born in Dublin in 1859, and at the age of seven was sent to Stuttgart as a student of the 'cello. After some years' study and a tour of Europe, he accepted the position of solo 'cellist in the orchestra at the Metropolitan Opera in 1886. A more brilliant career as conductor became possible and, after having been bandmaster of the Twenty-Second Regiment Band and Conductor of the Fittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Herbert organized in 1904 the Victor Herbert Orchestra, which has had a most successful career. All this time Mr. Herbert continued to compose operas, writing more than twenty-five, including two grand operas.

Mr. Herbert's great fame as a composer of operas has somewhat obscured the fact that he is a gifted 'cello virtuoso, and when but a young man held the position of first 'cellist in the Stuttgart Court Orchestra.

HOMER, LOUISE, Contralto

MME. HOMER

This popular American contralto comes from Pittsburgh, Pa., where she was Louise Delworth Beatty, daughter of a well-known clergyman. She is now the wife of Sidney Homer, American composer and one of her earlier teachers, known as the composer of many fine and original songs.

Louise Homer laid the foundations of her musical education in the United States, with Alice Groff in Philadelphia, and with W. L. Whitney. Her unusual talent was recognized by George W. Chadwick and Arthur Foote, who with her husband then in Boston, encouraged her to study and advised her to seek the operatic stage. Taking this advice she went abroad, and two years of Paris atmosphere and training accomplished wonders for her voice and her stage experience. She made her début as Leonora in "Favorita" in 1898. An immediate engagement at Covent Garden, London, followed, and in 1899 she was secured by the Théâtre de la Monnaie, in Brussels. Her success in that city was immediate and she remained there for eight months. The next year she returned to Covent Garden, where she achieved an old-world triumph. This was followed by a return to home soil, where she joined the forces of the Metropolitan Opera Company. From that time her success was assured.

MISS HOMER

Mme. Homer's genius has been transmitted to a new generation—whereof the proof lies in the lovely duet records which have been made by her and her daughter and namesake Miss Louise Homer. Miss Homer, who is a soprano, will bear on into the future the tradition set up by her mother, who will be remembered on the Victor records as one of the great contraltos of her time.

JOHNSON, EDWARD, Tenor

JOHNSON

Edward Johnson, the great Canadian tenor, is one of the greatest operatic artists developed within recent years. As with so many singers born in the New World, his first triumphs came to him in Italy. He was a born singer. He began as a choir boy in New York, passed thence into comic opera, then went abroad, translated his name into Italian, and, as "Edoardo di Giovanni," toured Europe for seven years. He created a number of important rôles, including those in "Il Tabarro" and "Gianni Schicchi," and he first introduced Wagnerian rôles into a number of Italian cities. In July, 1920, King Victor Emanuel II conferred upon him the Cross of Officer of the Order of the Crown of Italy. Mr. Johnson's reappearance in the New World, last season with the Chicago Opera Company, was one of the events of the musical year. His voice is fine, fresh, powerful and with a certain quality altogether its own.

JOURNET, MARCEL, Bass (Zhoor-nay')

JOURNET

Journet was born at Nice, France. He studied under Seghettini and made his début at Bezieres, Belgium, in 1891, where M. Calabresi, manager of the Brussels La Monnaie, heard him and promptly engaged him for three years. In 1897 he made his first appearance in London and has since been a prime favorite there.

Journet is possessed of a magnificent voice, full and resonant, and has a fine stage presence. He is perfectly at home in an unusually varied repertoire, speaking the languages as a native.

His records cover a great range of compositions, from the splendid rolling bass numbers of the great operas to the patriotic and popular songs of various countries.

This sterling artist is well known to opera-goers in America, as he was a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company for many years. In 1908 M. Journet was engaged by the Paris Opéra, and has since been one of the important members of that great company, returning to America only at intervals.

KINDLER, HANS, Violoncellist

KINDLER

Hans Kindler was born in Rotterdam, Holland, in 1892, and was educated in the high school and university of that city. When he was nine years old he began to play the 'cello, and later attended the Rotterdam Conservatory, where he studied under Mossel, Gerardy and Casals. He was for two years solo 'cellist at the Charlottenburg Opera, and taught the 'cello at the Scharwenka Conservatory. Mr. Kindler has appeared with the principal orchestras in Amsterdam, Birmingham and Hanover, under such famous conductors as Mengelberg, Kunwald, Schönberg, Landon Ronald, etc. In 1914 he appeared with orchestras in Europe and in the United States. In 1915 he became first violoncellist of the Philadelphia Orchestra under Leopold Stokowski. Five years later, his powers fully matured and fully recognized, he took to the concert stage. He has made a number of remarkable Victor Blue Label Records, of which, in addition to those here listed, a number will be found under his name in the main body of the catalogue.

KREISLER, FRITZ, Violinist (Krice'-ler)

Kreisler was born in 1875, and although brought up in an atmosphere of refinement, he confesses that at one period of his boyhood his great ambition was to be a trolley conductor! Fortunately this youthful ambition was succeeded by an ambition to excel in music. This he did at an early age, as do so many artists of real genius.

At the age of ten young Fritz won the first prize at the Vienna Conservatory; and in his twelfth year astonished the professors at the Conservatoire in Paris by winning the Prix de Rome, an unprecedented occurrence. As a boy prodigy, he toured America with Rosenthal, returning to Austria to enter other fields. Although during these four years he abandoned violin practice entirely, on his reappearance in 1899 his bow was as true and his technique as flawless as ever.

(For solos with Kreisler's obbligati see "Farrar" and "McCormack." For three records of the Bach Concerto for Two Violins, see "Zimbalist."

KUBELIK, JAN, Violinist (Koo'-beh-leek)

KUBELIK

Jan Kubelik was born in Michle, near Prague, on July 5, 1880. His father, an amateur violinist, began to teach him the violin when but five years old, and the boy made his first public appearance at the age of eight. When he was twelve he entered the Prague Conservatory, where he remained for six years. His wonderful success since that time is familiar to all. Kubelik returned to the United States in the fall of 1920, repeating some of his old triumphs and re-establishing his old friendships with the American music-loving public.

The records which he has made for the Victor exhibit well his firm, pure and beautiful tone, his admirable technique and the amazing ease and freedom of his playing.

LAZARO, HIPPOLITO, Tenor (Lah'-thah-roh)

LAZARO

This promising young tenor, who is a native of Spain, has made considerable success in Europe and South America, and recently appeared at the Metropolitan Opera House. However, it was not necessary to wait for his actual appearance here, as the Victor had already made some records of his voice. In the recording of this singer the Victor has followed its usual policy of endeavoring to exhibit the beauty of the voice rather than its extreme power, and the records are therefore doubly attractive ones. Two favorite opera airs have been chosen for Lazaro's first records.

MARTINELLI, GIOVANNI, Tenor

This brilliant singer has made a notable success at the Metropolitan, and is one of the best Italian tenors ever heard in America. He was born in Montagnana. His father, a cabinetmaker, was not able to give his son a musical education, but he managed to learn the clarinet and finally joined the regimental band, where the director discovered the young player's remarkable voice. He was sent to Professor Mandolini, and soon made his début at the Dal Verme as Ernani. A Covent Garden engagement soon followed, and as America eventually gets the best singers, Martinelli soon came to the Metropolitan; and the Victor, which also invariably acquires the best artists, promptly secured his services.

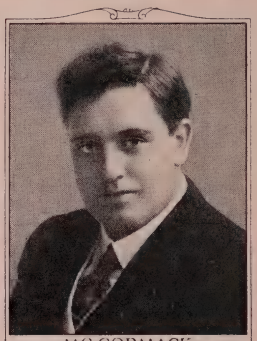
McCORMACK, JOHN, Tenor



MC CORMACK

Born in Athlone, Ireland, John McCormack early learned to sing the songs of his native land, but he had no reason to suspect that the voice he loved to use was exceptional. Induced to compete at the Dublin Musical Festival, however, he met with such success as enabled him, with the proceeds of a few other concerts, to go to Italy to study. After a successful début, followed with numerous other operatic appearances in Italy, he was engaged for Covent Garden, London, on October 15, 1907. His succeeding triumphs in America are well within memory, and only recently he reappeared in opera at the Metropolitan, New York. It is chiefly, however, as a concert artist that he is best known to American audiences. He has traveled the length and breadth of the land, and is everywhere received with tumultuous enthusiasm. Shortly after the American entry into the war, he became an American citizen, and devoted himself to aiding war work. John McCormack has come to be something of an "institution" in America, and he undoubtedly interprets in song the heart of the American people in a way peculiarly his own. Gifted with a voice of superb beauty, he can turn lightly from the most exacting of operatic airs to simple, haunting melodies that linger in the memory with the most treasured experiences of a lifetime. John McCormack's faith in the Victrola as the only means of effectually reproducing and preserving his voice is such that he has entered into an agreement to make records for the Victor Company expiring not till February, 1938.

MELBA, NELLIE, Soprano

MELBA

No prima donna of the present day has ever been so beloved in three continents as has this Australian artist.

Melba was born at Burnley, near Melbourne, Australia. Her father was a Scotch contractor who had been in Australia some years. He was proud of his daughter's musical talent, but objected to her following it as a profession, and it was not until her marriage to Captain Charles Armstrong that she finally decided on a musical career. The singer went to Europe in 1886, and began to study under Mme. Marchesi, making such rapid progress that her début was made in Brussels in 1887 under the name of Melba (derived, of course, from her native city), and her success was immediate.

MICHAILOWA, MARIE, Soprano (Misch-ih'-loh-ah)

MICHAILOWA

Marie Alexandrowna Michailowa was born in Little Russia, in the south of the Empire, and made her first appearance in Charkow when quite a young girl. She then went to Petrograd for further study, where her unusually beautiful voice quickly attracted the attention of the critics. At the close of her Conservatory studies she was engaged at the Imperial Opera House (Théatre Impérial de Petrograd), soon becoming the chief prima donna, a position which she held more than fifteen years. Her voice is an unusually beautiful and sympathetic one.

NIELSEN, ALICE, Soprano

NIELSEN

Miss Nielsen, though eminently successful several years ago in light opera, was very ambitious and became dissatisfied with her work, feeling that she could make no further progress. She therefore began patiently to study for grand opera. Her bravery in sacrificing at its height one of the greatest careers in light opera this world has ever known (and this at an age when glory and adulation appeal most strongly to a young girl) and entering the struggle for supremacy in Grand Opera, may account for her remarkable rise into prominence within the past few years. What she has accomplished is now a matter of history, and the records she has made for the Victor speak eloquently of her achievements.

OBER, MARGARETE, Contralto (Oh'-baer)

Since her début with the Metropolitan Opera Company in 1913, Margarete Ober has had a distinguished career in the United States. She was born in Berlin and made her first operatic appearance in Frankfort. She has sung the leading mezzo and contralto rôles in Wagnerian opera, and in addition earned particular distinction as Azucena in "Il Trovatore," her Victor record of "Stride la vampa!" being a fine example of her singing in this rôle. She also played an important part in the production of "Boris Godounow," by that strange Russian genius, Moussorgski. Her record from this work is noteworthy.

PADEREWSKI, IGNACE JAN, Pianist (Pad-er-ef'-skee)

PADEREWSKI

The world today knows the history of Ignace Jan Paderewski—and how he placed in abeyance, for a time, his career as an artist, for the troublous paths of leadership as the first Premier of the New Poland. Shortly before this he made a number of new records for the Victor.

These numbers, which are among the great favorites of Mr. Paderewski's concert repertoire, have been selected by this famous artist for his latest representation in the Victor Catalogue. They have been made since the new contract was signed and represent a noteworthy achievement in the recording of piano music. The piano has been one of the most difficult instruments to record satisfactorily, because notes played on the piano retain their full volume for a moment only, and the gradual diminution of the tone co not be satisfactorily maintained in the record tory advance has been made by the Victor. It is in this respect that a most satisfactory advance has been made by the Victor. Two of Paderewski's own compositions and five Chopin numbers are here listed, and we are gratified that the technique and artistry of a master have been worthily reproduced.

PATTI, ADELINA, Soprano

Patti spent so much of her youth in this country that she is frequently spoken of as an American. However, she was born in Madrid, Spain, in 1843. Her father, anxious to try his fortunes in the new world, came here when Adelina was ten years old, and became manager of the Italian Opera House in Chambers Street, New York. In 1859 at the age of sixteen, Patti made her operatic début in New York, in Lucia, and achieved a tremendous success. Her further career was a wonderful one, and the mere recital of her triumphs would fill a volume. No other singer was ever so long before the public and none was ever so successful in preserving an unimpaired voice.

Sometime before her death, which occured in 1919, Mme. Patti sang for the Victor some of the old songs with which she had delighted millions of her hearers in past years.

PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA

Under the masterful leadership of Leopold Stokowski, the Philadelphia Orchestra has rapidly taken a leading position among the symphony orchestras of the United States. The success of the Victor Company in making satisfactory records of a full-sized symphony orchestra in its entirety has enabled us to offer records by the Philadelphia Orchestra under its own brilliant conductor. This orchestra was developed from an amateur orchestra which played under the leadership of Dr. W. W. Gilchrist, a famous American composer. In 1900 a permanent orchestra was established by Fritz Scheel, who was succeeded by Carl Pohlig, formerly First Court Conductor at Stuttgart. He resigned in 1912, and was succeeded by Leopold Stokowski. Under Stokowski the Orchestra has developed remarkably both in organization and artistic achievement. It is now almost entirely self-supporting; a pension fund for the personnel has been established, and the artistic achievements include memorable performances of Gustav Mahler's "Symphony of a Thousand Voices," which was thus given in America for the first time. Each year an increasing number of tours have been made by this orchestra in various parts of the country, though the war necessarily limited its movements for a time.

Ph

PHILADELPHIA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The New York engagements have also increased, showing that the Philadelphia Orchestra is now firmly established among the world's best symphony organizations. There is something almost uncanny in the thought that the polished black surface of a disc-record may contain the co-operative efforts of nearly a hundred men; yet here we have miniature performances of the Philadelphia Orchestra exactly attuned to the needs of the living-room of your own home.

PLANÇON, POL, Bass (Plan-sohn')

This accomplished and popular singer was born in the Ardennes, where his boyhood was spent. His father did not sympathize with his professional ambitions, intending him for a merchant. Incurring the displeasure of his family, he entered the Ecole Duprez through the influence of Ritter. Duprez, who was then the greatest living teacher of diction, taught young Plançon in the most thorough manner, and no artist of the present generation sang with more artistic finish, and with more careful attention to enunciation, phrasing and expression. His American début took place at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, during the season 1893-94. He died in 1914.

POWELL, MAUD, Violinist

POWELL

The late Maud Powell was the greatest of all women violinists. Circumstances of her death last year, in a Pennsylvania city on a concert tour, had about them something of the heroic. Her memory and her records remain; and both have in them something of the essence of imperishable things.

This artist was born in Peru, Illinois, and began taking violin lessons when she was eight years old. Her first teacher was William Lewis, of Chicago, who, doubtless because of her evident earnestness, took great interest in her. Through Maud Powell's veins flowed a strain of Hungarian blood from her mother's side, and perhaps this was responsible for a certain warmth of temperament, gypsy-like in fervor, which was one of the distinguishing characteristics of her art, serving to humanize a technique which was almost too perfect.

Miss Powell studied with Lewis four years, and then went abroad, a girl of twelve, to study first with Schradieck and then with Dancla in Paris. Afterward Joachim heard her play in London and offered to take her into his classes without obliging her to go through any further preliminary studies. She returned to New York in 1884 and made her début with the New York Philharmonic in the Bruch G minor Concerto, and since that time she created forever new standards of violin playing.

RACHMANINOFF, SERGEI, Pianist (Rach-mah'-nee-noff, Sair-jay)

RACHMANINOFF

Sergei Rachmaninoff is one of the great figures of contemporary music. He is both a conductor and a virtuoso; and considered as either—or as both—he stands in the foremost rank of this century's personalities. He was born at Novgorod, Russia in 1873. At the age of 9 he entered the Petrograd Conservatory. He toured Russia as a pianist in 1892. He early attracted attention as a composer, and in London, in 1899, he appeared in the threefold rôle of composer, orchestral conductor, and pianist, which he since has repeated, many times, in many parts of the world. He visited the United States for the first tour in 1909, returning to Russia the following year. In 1912 he was appointed chief conductor of the Imperial Opera in Petrograd. He later returned to the United States. Mr. Rachmaninoff is a prolific, original and powerful composer, his works ranging from operatic and symphonic compositions to the piano works by which he is best known, perhaps, in the United States. As a pianist, he is easily among the first living masters of the instrument. His first record, one of his own compositions, established him at once with Victor audiences, with whom he has reached at last that immense and cosmopolitan public so immense and cosmopolitan an art deserves.

RUFFO

This famous Italian baritone, who for several years past has been one of the operatic sensations of Europe and South America, made his début in the United States at the Metropolitan Opera House, Philadelphia, on November 4, 1912, in Verdi's "Rigoletto."

The story of Ruffo's career is a most romantic one. He is a Tuscan by birth, and at an early age entered the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia at Rome, but after two years of study was dismissed by the faculty and advised to seek another profession, the directors declaring that his vocal equipment was inadequate for operatic work! Fortunately for the operatic world, the young man was undismayed, and, still determined upon a musical career, he went to Milan and sought the advice of Signor Cassini, a former artist who made a specialty of vocal training, and with whom he subsequently studied. He then went to Rio Janeiro, where his first success was made. After singing in other South American cities, he soon returned to his native land for a triumph that will ever be memorable.

During the world war he fought with the Italian forces, as an aviator, refusing to sing or do anything else but what he conceived to be his first and most important duty. With peace he came to America.

SCHUMANN-HEINK, ERNESTINE, Contralto

SCHUMANN-HEINK

Mme. Schumann-Heink has been long in America, and has been long and closely identified with American life. At the age of ten she was sent to the Convent of the Ursuline Nuns in Prague, where she sang in the choir, but entirely by ear. Her father was afterward transferred to Graz, where a teacher named Marietta von Le Clair, who had recognized the signs which told of a voice worth cultivating, kindly offered to give the budding genius her best efforts without pay. The girl's voice at that time was a deep contralto, with no high notes. The wise teacher kept her on nothing but exercises for two years before she gave her songs by Mendelssohn, Schubert and other composers. In 1878 she made her first appearance at the Dresden Opera House as Azucena in "Il Trovatore," and in the early '90s she achieved fame in Berlin. In 1896 she appeared at Bayreuth and in 1898 created a sensation in London. Her first appearance in New York was in 1898, and she was such a great success that American audiences refused to allow her to return to Europe.

SCOTTI, ANTONIO, Baritone

SCOTTI

One of the most valued and gifted artists of the Metropolitan Opera Company is Antonio Scotti, the well-known baritone. He was born in Naples, and even as a child showed a desire to become a singer. His friends strongly advised him to study music, and he was induced to consult Mme. Trifari-Paganini, who assured him he had an exceptionally good voice, and urged him to cultivate it. He at last yielded, though with little hope of ever becoming an artist. At the age of 23, after he had studied for four years he made his début at the Teatro Reale, in Malta, as Amonasro in "Aïda," singing later at that house in nine other rôles. Scotti's career was now open to him. He sang in turn in many of the great theatres of Italy and filled six seasons in South America. Engagements at the Teatro Reale, Madrid, and in Petrograd, Moscow, Warsaw, Odessa and London, established his reputation.

This artist, who sings for the Victor, has made a number of very fine records.

SEMBRICH, MARCELLA, Soprano

SEMBRICH

Sembrich was the daughter of a poor musician of Lemberg, in Galicia, but afterwards adopted her mother's maiden name, which was Sembrich. Her father began to teach her to play the piano and violin when she was but four years old, and at twelve she was obliged to play the piano for dances in order to help support the family. Her musical gifts were noticed by a benevolent Pole named Lanowich, who sent her first to the Loepel Conservatory, then to Vienna, where Professor Epstein discovered the natural beauty of her voice, and advised her to take up voice culture. Her début was made as Elvira, June 3, 1877, at Athens; and she was then engaged for the Dresden opera in 1878. In 1880 she sang Leonora at Covent Garden and her success being assured, engagements in Warsaw, Petrograd, Moscow and Madrid followed.

Se

In 1883 she was engaged for the Metropolitan Opera House, making her American début October 24th, in "Lucia," afterwards singing Elvira, Violetta and Ophelia. As soon as the public realized that here was the perfect singer at last, her triumphs were phenomenal—such perfection of style and beauty of tone, combined with that power of interpretation which is one of her greatest gifts, won the plaudits of audiences and critics alike.

The retirement of this singer from the opera was a notable event, and in announcing her departure from the operatic stage she said: "I wish to make my adieux while the sun is still high in the heavens—that is all. For me there shall be no pity"; and while her admirers may regret this decision, they cannot fail to rejoice that her polished art may still be enjoyed through the Victrola.

Mme. Sembrich gave a few recitals in aid of the widows and orphans of her beloved Poland, who have suffered so much from the ravages of war, and her consummate art delighted her audiences just as of old.

This artist is pronounced to be one of the greatest of tenors, and such was his popularity abroad that only with the utmost difficulty was permission obtained from the management of the Royal Opera, Vienna, for him to fill a season in America in the days before the war.

Slezak has been called the second Tamagno, and with good reason, as he possesses not only a splendid voice, but is a really great actor as well. His recent appearances caused the critics to be exceedingly enthusiastic in his praise.

The Victor Company was the first to bring out records of this great tenor.

Miss Spencer was born in Boston, where she studied with the best teachers before going abroad. Several years of hard work and serious study in London and Paris followed, and at her début in New York the young singer made a profound impression; the critics unanimously praising her beautiful voice, fine diction and artistic phrasing.

After several seasons of oratorio and concert engagements, this artist began a series of New York concerts, and the character of her reception at these recitals made an annual concert a certainty. Miss Spencer's Victrola records are very fine ones, being absolutely faithful reproductions of her lovely voice.

TAMAGNO, Francesco, Tenor (Tah-mahn'-yoh)

On August 31, 1905, at the age of 54, this famous artist, the greatest tenor of his time, died at Varese, Italy.

Tamagno was the son of a rural inn-keeper near Turin, and to his active outdoor life he doubtless owed his wonderful physique—that great chest and muscular throat which produced the wonderful robusto tones that are still remembered.

TAMAGNO

Though this great singer has passed away, we can still hear that matchless voice, thanks to science, which has made it possible to record it imperishably. Delightful as it is for one's own diversion to bring back the true record and ring of a voice that is far away, how much stranger, how much more extraordinary it seems when we are able to recall from the world of shadows the sound of a voice that is still!

Tamagno, during his lifetime, made a number of unusual records for the Victor Company.

TERRY, ELLEN ALICIA, Actress

TERRY

The Victor has recorded a series of Shakespearean selections by one of the most famous of living actresses, Ellen Terry. This artist was born in 1848 at Coventry, England, her parents being well-known actors. Her first appearance on the stage was made at the age of eight in "The Winter's Tale." After several years with various stock organizations, she joined Henry Irving's company, playing Katherine in "Taming of the Shrew," and thus began the long association with this great actor which terminated only at his death in 1905.

Miss Terry has recited for the Victrola portions of the works in which she has made her greatest successes, and the series forms a most interesting souvenir of this noted actress.

TETRAZZINI

Mme. Tetrazzini has made one of the greatest successes in operatic history in this country, and has met with a reception almost unparalleled. During her last operatic engagements, the great Manhattan and Metropolitan Opera Houses in New York were crowded every time the famous soprano appeared, and she has been greeted with a series of tremendous ovations. It is not the habit of blasé New York audiences to go wild over a singer, but the Tetrazzini performances were the scenes of some most remarkable outbursts of enthusiasm.

The management of the Tivoli Opera House in San Francisco first brought Tetrazzini to the attention of the English-speaking world. Other countries had already discovered in her work qualities of extreme excellence; but it remained for San Francisco to make her "world famous." Her triumphs in London, New York and elsewhere are too well known to require further mention.

Tetrazzini's first concert tour, embracing twenty of the largest cities, was a succession of ovations. It is a wonderful voice with which this great soprano is electrifying her audiences; remarkable in its purity and great range, while her colorature work is extremely brilliant. She has been residing for some years in Italy, and in 1919 was awarded a gold medal, with diploma of honor of the Italian Red Cross, for her generous efforts on behalf of disabled and wounded soldiers.

It is perhaps enough to say here that this marvelous voice has been recorded in all its beauty and power on these superb Victor records, and the list contains all the numbers with which Mme. Tetrazzini has made her greatest triumphs.

Especially noticeable in this list are the Proch air, one of the diva's most famous numbers, her singing of it approaching the marvelous; the favorite Last Rose, the first record to be sung in English; the Swiss Echo Song, a famous old colorature air, the difficult variations being given with dazzling brilliancy and consummate ease; David's beautiful Charmant Oiseau, which shows to rare advantage the diva's purity of tones, especially in the duet with the flute; and favorite opera airs—from "Masked Ball," "Barber of Seville," "Dinorah," "Rigoletto," etc.

WERRENRATH, REINALD, Baritone

WERRENRATH

Reinald Werrenrath has been making Victor Records for ten years. As a younger artist (he still is young) his contributions were made to the Black and the Blue Label classes. By sheer force of merit he has now won a place among the immortals of modern vocal music, and he will in future contribute to the Red Seal Records.

He has sung with the Metropolitan Opera Company, and he has sung in concert everywhere throughout the United States. He is the son of George Werrenrath, who was himself a famous singer. He was born of Danish ancestry, in Brooklyn, N. Y., and graduated from New York University. He has a splendid rich baritone voice, clear, smooth and sympathetic, and beyond that he sings with extraordinary understanding and intelligence. Mr. Werrenrath has before him a future of great achievement—of greater achievement than he had in the past, when his early successes might have turned the head of a less balanced personality. He was successful from the first in some of the less ambitious fields of the singer; but nothing short of the highest would satisfy him, and he took less thought to the successes of the moment, than to the tasks of the future. His career was interesting to watch. He developed modestly, perfecting his vocal art year by year, studying and working with conscience and devotion, and he now is ready to reap the reward of his steadfastness to an artistic ideal. Although his great field, perhaps, has been the song, his knowledge of other vocal music is enormous. He has an extensive Victor repertoire and his records are in great demand. Many of these will be found listed in the main body of the catalogue.

WHITEHILL, CLARENCE, Baritone

WHITEHILL

Mr. Whitehill hails from the West, having been born in Marengo, Iowa. He took such a keen interest in music that at the age of 19 he went to Chicago to begin studying in earnest. He sang in several Chicago churches with some success, and four years later Mme. Melba advised him to go abroad for serious study. The young man took her advice, went to Paris and placed himself under Giraudet for dramatic action, and Sbriglia for French dramatic rôles. He proved an earnest student and hard worker, and had soon mastered more than thirty bass rôles.

His début was made at Brussels in 1900 as Friar Laurence in "Romeo." He returned to Paris for a season at the Opéra Comique, and was then secured by Mr. Savage for the English opera season at the Metropolitan in 1901. Returning to Europe in the spring of that year he began on the advice of Mme. Wagner, to study German opera, and in 1902 appeared in the "Ring" at Lübeck, and as Wolfram at Bayreuth in 1904.

The baritone has chosen a wide variety of selections for his Victor records, including several old-time ballads, which he sings with unusual sympathy and understanding.

Mr. Whitehill makes records for the Victor, and furnishes added proof that American voices, properly trained, are fully equal to those of any other nation. In point of fact, he is a living example of the principle that an American artist, with his flexible and unprejudiced mind, his high idealism, and his faithfulness to the necessary long labor of preparation for the life of the singer, may take and may hold the highest artistic rank. Sympathetic insight and a fine sense for dramatic values are characteristics which will be found in the records by Mr. Whitehill which are listed below.

WILLIAMS, EVAN, Tenor

WILLIAMS

The fact that Evan Williams is no longer in the land of the living makes his unforgettable records all the more valuable. Evan Williams was essentially an American product. The son of a family in poor circumstances, he was born in Ohio, and enjoyed little preliminary education. He was gifted, however, with a voice of singular sweetness, and indomitable will power. Coming to New York, he soon established himself as one of the foremost concert and oratorio singers of the day. A tour through England, the home of oratorio, added greatly to his reputation, which was still increased upon his return to America. An artist of the very highest attainments, he never lost sight of the human side of his art. The list of records below is fairly representative of the man. Great masterpieces of oratorio and opera are found side by side with the tender folk songs of the land of his Welsh ancestors, and with these are found the popular better-class ballads of our own day. Williams played upon his audiences with the touch of a master, stirring them with his fire, lulling them with his exquisite tenderness, and this mystical magnetic power is translated through his records so that it is preserved forever.

WITHERSPOON, HERBERT, Bass

The Victor Company is able to offer to its patrons a number of fine records by one of the most successful of American bassos, whose superb work with the Metropolitan Opera has deepened the impression already made by him in concert. Mr. Witherspoon is a singer of intelligence, with a voice and style of unusual beauty. He has an impressive stage presence, distinguished bearing and much personal magnetism. His voice is of ample range, exceptionally well schooled, noble in quality, and he is a master in the art of phrasing. Mr. Witherspoon has made a number of records for the Victrola, every one of which has been contributed in masterly fashion. He made his opera début in the United States, but soon extended his triumphs into Europe.

ZANELLI

ZANELLI, RENATO, Baritone (Tsah-nel-lee)

Renato Zanelli is probably the youngest of the great operatic singers of the day. He comes from Valparaiso, Chile, where he quietly studied for a number of years with Maestro Querze, who for many years taught in Italy. His original intention was to practice law, but his interest in music was justified by the discovery that he possessed a baritone voice of extraordinary sweetness and power. He was offered an early operatic début in the United States, but chose, rather, to continue his studies until he could appear as a finished dramatic singer. It is all the more remarkable, in this instance, from the persistent refusal of the artist to appear in the United States until he was satisfied that his training had been carried to a degree which would ensure his acceptability. He kept steadfastly in the background until all was ready, and he stepped into immediate action. His début in the United States was made with the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York. Mr. Zanelli is not simply a great baritone of the future; he is an artist of the present, and an artist of enviable powers. His personal history is interesting from the fact that, like many men who came to greatness in the world of music, he studied against the desire of his family that he should become a musician. His father was a wealthy nitrate mine owner, of Italian blood, and his mother was a Chilean lady. It was the wish of his family that he should continue his father's interests, but his wish was to study music. He sang in Santiago and Valparaiso, then came to the United States.

ZIMBALIST, EFREM, Violinist (Zim'-bal-ist)

This distinguished Russian violinist was born at Rostoff on the Don, Russia, April 9, 1889, and disclosed a musical temperament at an early age. He did not, however, commence to study the violin until seven years old, when he took lessons from his father, a distinguished orchestra director. Later he went to Leopold Auer in Petrograd, and made rapid progress. His début in that city was a phenomenal success, which was repeated in the principal European music centres. A splendid London début definitely established his fame in England, and an equally warm welcome awaited him in the United States, where he seems now to be fully "one of us." His marriage to Alma Gluck has led to the making of some beautiful duet records by these famous Victor artists.

Pronouncing Table—Composers, Singers and Operas

The constant appearance of new names in the Victor lists will make this table quite useful. It is not intended to be a complete list, but includes only those names the pronunciation of which is not clear and those difficult to pronounce. The sign (′) denotes the syllable to be accented.

Some Remarks on Pronunciation of Foreign Names and Titles

In most pronouncing dictionaries pronunciations are indicated by symbols such as these: á, ê, ì, etc., and unless these signs are thoroughly memorized, the key list must be consulted for each word, which is most inconvenient. The Victor endeavors to do away with this list by means of syllables which indicate the approximate pronunciation at a glance, or by using familiar words—using ah for the sound of a as in barn; oh for o as in boat; and ay for a as in ate; and giving the short sound of e (hen) and i (hit) by eh and ih.

Some Sounds Difficult to Indicate

It must be understood, however, that it is quite impossible to give exactly the sound of some foreign letters (such as the French e, and n, or the German w). For instance, the last syllable of Chopin, indicated pahn—which is about as near as one can come in English characters,—is pronounced, as some one has said, by commencing to sound ng′, but stopping midway, and closing the back of the throat to throw the sound through the nose.

The French e (as in de) might be indicated deh, but is pronounced with the lips almost closed. Put your lips in position to pronounce oo, as in food, then try to say deh instead, and you will come very near it. The German w (as in Wagner) is neither a w nor a v, but just between them. Begin the word as though it was spelled Vahgner, but instead of pressing the teeth firmly against the lower lip, press them very lightly and then go through the motion of sounding the v.

The editor has indicated these pronunciations as nearly as possible, and they will be found correct enough for practical purposes. But do not pause at each syllable—pronounce the entire word rapidly without hesitation, putting a decided accent on the syllable marked with the sign "'". Other pronunciations will be found in their alphabetical place throughout the Catalogue.
